Quarles Gives Money Needs For Air Force

Says $23 Billion Figure Is Estimate By Gen. Twining

WASHINGTON (AP) —Secretary Donald Quarles said today the Air Force may need $23,600,000,000 for the year ending July 1, 1958.

Quarles tossed out this figure at a Senate hearing at which he also said the Pentagon is considering a boost in the strategic bomber force from 11 to 17 wings by 1960. Current plans call for raising the number of B52s in a heavy bomber wing from 30 to 45.

The secretary said the $23,600,000,000 figure was a "flash estimate" by Gen. Nathan Twining, Air Force chief of staff, and that no "firm" figure had been reached.

It compares with about 16½ billion recimmended by the administration for the Air Force in the fiscal year beginning next week—an amount which has come under criticism in Congress as too little. The Senate voted this week to up it by 960 million dollars.

Any appropriation in the neighborhood of 23½ billion for the Air Force alone would necessarily mean a sharp overall increase in the defense budget and cloud the outlook for any tax cutting.

Quarles testified before the special Senate committee headed by Sen. Symington (D-Mo), which is inquiring into relative U.S.-Russian air power.

Some of its testimony has been received in secret and has concerned development of new weapons. It was disclosed last night that among this testimony was an army prediction of having ready in four or five years an antimissile system.

This contemplates that the future menace of intercontinental ballistic missiles, carrying H-bomb warheads, would be countered by antimissiles meeting and destroying them at great heights and still far from their targets.

Under questioning, Quarles repeated his previous contention that "today and in 1959" the U. S. Air Force will have the "largest strategic force of any country."

Quarles also said there is a possibility that a new bomber, the Convair B58 "hustler," might add to American strategic striking power within three years.

More Showers on Tap For Most of the State

KANSAS CITY (AP) — More scattered showers and thunderstorms are on tap for Missouri.

They are expected to show up in the northern and western sections tonight and over most of the state Friday.

Rainstorms over parts of the state yesterday resulted in moderate precipitation. Warrensburg had .79, Kansas City .60, Butler .17, and Lexington .02.

There will be little change in temperature with Friday's highs in the 80s northeast to between 90 and 95 southwest.

Appreciation Days Friday And Saturday

Friday and Saturday — those are the days to go to town and shop Free parking in the downtown area, free bus rides to town between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m., free swims with tickets given with purchases made at local store — that is, if you are under 16 years of age — and, although the merchants are giving away some merchandise free, they are also offering nice bargains that will be worth coming to town for.

Sedalia Appreciation Days are the merchants' way of thanking their customers for their business during the year and they make a special effort to offer attractive prices on things they have to sell.

Stacked high in a box at the Chamber of Commerce office are the paper sacks that Bob Cain, chairman of "Operation Sack the Meters," and his crew of helpers plan to start putting sacks on the parking meters at 7 a.m. Friday, so that shoppers may have a place to park free and shop. Store managers and employees are expected to cooperate and leave their cars outside the parking meter zones. Harry Goldberg is giving them a chance to ride the buses downtown free those two days and they can get back home for a dime.

The swim tickets for children under 16 are good at either Liberty Park or Hubbard Park swimming pools. They are given with purchases at stores.

This is an annual event and is sponsored by the retail merchants division of the Chamber of Commerce. Harry Naugel is director of the division, Al Zurcher, Jr., is chairman, and Martin Goodrich is chairman of promotions.

Colleges Try For Animal Laboratory

68 Cities in 24 States in Battle For Research Site

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Representatives of four colleges were heard today in the battle of 68 cities in 24 states for a new 18-million-dollar government animal disease research laboratory.

Spokesmen from Kansas State College, Cornell University, Colorado A. & M., and a branch of the University of California went before a ten-member U.S. Department of Agriculture committee in the morning session of the second day of its four day hearing on the proposed laboratory site.

At the outset, Chairman Collins, a Kit Carson, Colo., rancher and the head of the American National Cattlemen's Assn., said his committee would make a personal inspection of sites appearing to be most favorable.

The new structure will include laboratories where research can be conducted simultaneously on 25 different animal diseases. It is to replace 50-year-old obsolete facilities in Washington, D.C., and other research operations at Auburn, Ala., and Denver.

Sixteen delegations went before the committee the first day and 14 more were scheduled to be heard today.

A delegation from Kansas State College, headed by Dr. James A. McCain, president of the college, advocated four sites at Manhattan, Kas., all within three miles of the college. Each site is between 200 and 400 acres in size.

The delegation pointed out that Kansas State has the only school of feed technology in the world. Other advantages listed were library facilities, a 51-year-old veterinary school and low construction costs.

Suggesting a site at Cornell University at Ithaca, N.Y., a delegation headed by Dr. William A. Hagan, dean of the veterinary college, proposed a site adjacent to the main campus. The site is about 200 to 300 acres in size.

Dr. Hagan said there would be no difficulty regarding housing for 200 families, the number of personnel expected to be included. He added that the veterinary library at Cornell is one of the largest in the nation.

Two More Patients Flee State Hospital

FULTON (AP)—Two state hospital patients wandered away last night to bring to five the number of inmates who have left the institution here this week.

Police said Fred Elliott, 48, Steelville, and John Vincen, Negro, Caruthersville, were missed about 9:50 p.m. They are considered harmless.

M. J. Dunnard, 68, committed from Lincoln County, walked away Tuesday night.

Starting the rash of walkouts week were David R. Sanders, St. Louis, and Fred Mudgett, Buchanan County, who fled Monday night under more serious circumstances. They bound and gagged a young woman psychologist and stole her car, which later was found abandoned at St. Charles. All five men are still at large.

U.S. Steel Industry Starts Banking Fires Before Strike

NEW YORK (AP) — The nation's giant steel industry began banking fires today as a precaution against a Saturday midnight strike of 650,000 employes, but negotiators strove anew to find a settlement.

Management and union representatives agreed to get together again at 3 p.m. despite an exchange of angry letters last night.

The letters first raised and then dashed the possibility that the present contracts might be extended beyond their June 30 expiration date to postpone the strike and permit more time for negotiations.

That left the negotiators with but three days to find some solution.

Industry shutdown procedures were leading off with the banking of the first furnace at U.S. Steel's Gary, Ind., works—the world's largest.

Banking operations there were to continue through Saturday, but with no layoffs until Saturday.

Bethlehem Steel's Johnstown, Pa., plant, employing 16,000 men and producing 2,300,000 tons annually, began production cutbacks this morning. The program began in the coke oven department, with blast furnaces and open hearths to follow.

Similar operations were on tap throughout the industry, although a Jones & Laughlin official at Cleveland said "we are very hopeful there won't be a strike."

The situation wasn't so pressing for one firm—Laclede Steel Co., which employs 3,500 workers in plants at Alton and Madison, Ill. Its contract with the United Steelworkers still has two months to go.

Thunderstorm, Strong Wind Disrupt Sedalia Power, and Fells Several Trees

K.C. Storm Hurts Many, Takes a Life

Considerable Harm Is Done to Property By Rain and Wind

KANSAS CITY, (AP) — One life was lost, a number of persons injured and considerable damage done to property by the most violent wind and rain storm in the 65-year history of the weather bureau at Kansas City yesterday.

The storm hit with telling ef- and western Missouri.

An Independence, Mo., man, John T. Jones, 37, was electrocuted when he stepped from his automobile onto a power line which fell a block from his home.

The wind velocity was clocked at 115 miles per hour for a 20-second interval at the Fairfax Municipal airport in Kansas City, Kan. It was up to 81-86 miles an hour at the Municipal Air Terminal in Kansas City, Mo.

The Kansas City Power & Co., said it was the most severe storm which has hit the Greater Kansas City area for at least 10 years. At least 200 high - voltage lines were blown down. More than 300 men worked through the night restoring them.

Major damage was suffered by trees throughout the area. There was power failure for a time at some homes and hospitals.

A 60-mile plus per hour wind in the Lebanon, Mo., area resulted in a big tree falling across the Frisco railroad tracks near Southland. Volunteer workmen cleared the tracks 10 minutes ahead of an eastbound freight train.

At Bethel, Kan., there were many reports of roof and tree damage.

Kansas City, Kas., was left with scarred foliage and the business district was blacked out for a time because of a power failure. Norman White, manager of the Fairfax Municipal Airport, said four planes were damaged.

Four light aircraft on the ground at the Municipal Air Terminal in Kansas City, Mo., were blown over. Two other parked planes were jammed against each other, damaging the wings of both.

At Providence Hospital in Kansas City, Kan., three emergency operations were performed while the power was off. Two battery-operated lamps were used and attendants said they encountered little difficulty.

Fireworks Ban Will Be Strictly Enforced During Holiday Period

Fireworks will not be permitted in the city limits of Sedalia on the 4th of July, according to a recent city ordinance passed by the city council. Police Chief Edgar Neighbors states, "Violation of this city ordinance will be strictly enforced in the period before, during and after the 4th."

Chief Neighbors also stated that the ordinance was passed for the protection of persons living in the city of Sedalia and that their cooperation is asked during the holiday period.

"Last year," the chief said, "was a very cooperative year during the holiday, and I hope that the people of Sedalia can cooperate as well again this year."

WAFB Has Brief Alert to Find 'Downed' Plane

A local severe thunderstorm created much excitement in the Sedalia area early Wednesday evening. The storm, which hit about 3:30 p. m., held high winds with severe lightning and three-fourths of an inch rain. Winds were reported to have reached a velocity of an average of 64 miles per hour at Whiteman Air Force Base.

Several trees were blown down, especially in the northwest section of Sedalia. Branches were strewn over the streets and yards of that area, and shrubbery was toppled.

Lightning struck in some areas, doing only small amounts of damage to buildings and trees. Most of the damages from the storms were from the winds which struck.

In one locality, a lady was taking information for the Sedalia city directory, disregarding the storm. She had just begun talking to some people on their front porch when a large tree split in two places and fell over the circular drive in the yard. This was about 50 feet from the porch on which they were standing. Her car was parked near the tree but was unharmed. The lady left in a slight hurry.

In the downtown area, a tree fell in the Melita Day Nursery yard, doing hardly any damage. Just across the street from the nursery a large tree was struck by lightning and crashed across an alleyway.

Several television antennas were reported to have split in Sedalia, being struck both by lightning and wind.

Lights were out in many sections of the city, caused by lightning striking the lines and burning out the transformer fuses. Lightning also kocked down a power line at Ninth and Ingram, leaving the southeast section without power. This area included Bothwell Hospital, which had to depend on its stand-by equipment for electricity. Treetops also became tangled in the lines, and the Missouri Public Service repair crews were kept busy restoring service.

Lightning struck a house at 718 North Osage about 4 p. m. but did only slight damage.

At about the same time, the Sedalia police were notified by Whiteman Air Force Base that a T-33 trainer plane had radioed the control tower that the pilot would have to crash land somewhere between Knob Noster and LaMonte. The air base sent its fire truck east on Highway 50, along with other emergency vehicles, in an attempt to find the crash scene. About 15 minutes later the police department was notified by the base that the pilot had radioed the news of his safe arrival at Springfield.

Sedalia seemed to be the last community east of Kansas City that received any damage from the storm. Knob Noster traffic on one street was blocked momentarily by a fallen tree, and a window was blown out of the Adcock Real Estate office and another out of the Parker Cafe. But any other damage was confined to scattered tree branches. Strangely enough, LaMonte received wind and rain but sustained no damage except broke tree branches.

The storm apparently drifted southeastward, because Houstonia received only a few drops of rain and no wind. Tipton's wind and rain were minor. Such was the case, also, in Versailles. Windsor reported strong winds, but not as much rain as Sedalia and no damage. Warsaw reported heavy wind and rain but no damage.

Strong winds said to be near tornado force hit Otterville about 3:30 p.m. Wednesday disrupting telephone and electric service and doing extensive damage to trees. The largest report of damage was to the porch roof of Mrs. R. L. Fogle's home. No injuries were reported. Rain totaling 1.1 inch fell during a 30 to 40-minute period.

The Fair will open Saturday, Aug. 18, and continue through Sunday, Aug. 26.

Copies of the catalog may be obtained by addressing a request to W. H. Ritzenthaler, Secretary, Missouri State Fair, P.O. Box 111, Sedalia, Missouri.

Total cash premiums, as listed by departments in the 1956 premium book, total $105,487.35. Of this amount, $91,967.75 is offered by the State Fair, and $13,519.60 comes from cash premium specials offered by breed associations and others.

Although the Harness Races and Running Horse Races ($18,200) and the Horse Show ($20,920) receive the largest amounts, the Beef Cattle department and the FFA and 4-H departments all receive over $10,000.

Although no new departments are listed in the catalog, two new breeds have been added in the Swine department; they are Tamworth and Landrace and a Shetland Pony Halter Division has been added in the horse show. The only personnel changes shown, are new department heads in Music and Archeology. The new music superintendent is Mrs. Jewell Thomas of Sedalia and the superintendent of the archeology department is J. Mett Shippee of North Kansas City.

The 1956 Missouri State Fair will open with a parade through downtown Sedalia on Saturday, August 18, with formal opening exercises at the Fairgrounds following the parade. Several new entertainment attractions are offered. "Holiday on Ice," an ice skating extravaganza will appear five nights in front of the grandstand, starting Sunday, Aug. 19, and the annual Missouri Championship Race will run for the first time under the lights on Friday night, Aug. 24, with stars from Grand Ole Opry who appear Sunday, Aug. 26, and Motorcycle races on Monday afternoon, Aug. 20.

JCs Support More Rewards To Athletes

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The U.S. Junior Chamber of Commerce wants American athletes to be given "reasonable and open" rewards for their prowess, even if it means organization of a rival to the Amateur Athletic Union.

The Jaycees' national convention yesterday adopted a resolution calling on the AAU "to meet the changed conditions of modern competition and redraft its regulations so that the dedicated athlete may be reasonably and openly rewarded for his efforts."

Should the AAU fail to do this, the resolution said, "we wholeheartedly approve and sanction any other organization which may propose to regulate amateur sports within the spirit of this resolution."

The Jaycees contribute to the AAU on local levels and participate in fund-raising for the U.S. competition in the Olympics.

Delegates today turned to the prime business of their week-long convention — election of national officers.

There are 3,046 accredited votes.

The Jaycees had four candidates to choose from for president and 17 for the 10 vice presidential posts. The new officers will be installed tonight.

Dead Letter Office Becomes Alive With Thousands of Bees

NEW YORK (AP)—The dead letter office turned out to be a hive of activity yesterday.

A packing case containing thousands of bees, waiting transfer to a train, broke open unaccountably in the general post office building.

While Supt. Lester Bricks of the dead letter office went in quest of a DDT bomb, between 300 and 500 bees decided to buzz off on a tour of the world's largest post office.

The dead letter office came alive with swatting, slapping, howling mail clerks and television crewmen, who rolled their cameras against a real-life background of the "Flight of the Bumblebee."

Bricks finally subdued the yellow-jacketed dive bombers, but one casualty came after the armistice. Postal clerk Charles Fox obligingly agreed to pose for the cameramen with a dead bee on his nose. Only the bee wasn't dead, as Fox's nose now knows.

Focuses Bid On Possible Adlai Split

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP) — New York's Gov. Averell Harriman appears to be focusing his bid for the Democratic presidential nomination on the hope that Adlai E. Steveson's supporters will break apart on the civil rights issue.

Harriman made little political progress on the surface at the 48th annual Governors Conference which ended here yesterday. But he pounded away on his theme that the party must take a strong stand on civil rights.

The New York governor's strategists professed to believe that if that issue is pushed to the forefront at the Chicago convention, so much pressure will be put on Stevenson he will be forced into a stand alienating either Northern or Southern support.

If a wedge can be driven into the Stevenson ranks, Harriman's backers seem to be willing to risk a convention walkout and face the prospect of Democratic loss of some Southern states in November.

Harriman has said repeatedly the Democrats can't win unless they carry New York and what he calls "likeminded' states.

While his and Stevenson's public statements on the Supreme Court's order for racial integration in the schools have not been far apart, there is evidence that Harriman is prepared to go much further than Stevenson now is in the direction of a declaration for enforcement of that order.

As a possible evidence of how seriously some Southerners regard the consequences—for them—of a strong platform delegation, nine Dixie governors agreed at a huddle to cooperate in efforts to prevent adoption of any plank of this kind.

Wilson Is Puzzled Over Resignation Query by Reporters

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Defense Wilson returned last night from a short vacation in Canada and, professing puzzlement that such a question was asked, said he has no intention of resigning.

Then, obviously referring to the fire aimed at him in recent days by Senate critics, he told newsmen:

"The price of progress is trouble and I must be making a lot of progress."

The last time he used this phrase, when a round of Army-Air Force bickering broke out last month, he said the trouble he then noted was "too much."

Some Senate Democrats called for Wilson's resignation after he used the word "phony" last week in discussing with newsmen senatorial moves to increase the Air Force budget. Saying later that he was misunderstood, Wilson asserted he didn't mean to apply the word to senators.

As he stepped from a plane last night, waiting reporters asked Wilson if he intended to resign.

"I don't know why you bring up the questio?" he replied. "No, of course not. Why would I?"

Red Premier Proposes Direct Negotiations To Obtain Formosa

HONG KONG (AP)—Red China's Premier Chou En-lai tonight proposed direct negotiations with Nationalist China to arrange the "peaceful" transfer of Formosa to the Communists.

"The dying gasp of the Taiwan (Formosan) authorities under the United States cannot last for long," Chou said in a speech to the National People's Congress—Communist China's Parliament—in Peiping.

The speech was broadcast by Peiping radio.

"On behalf of the government," Chou said, "I formally declare we are willing to negotiate with the Taiwan authorities (the Nationalists) on specific steps and conditions for the peaceful liberation of Taiwan and we hope that the Taiwan authorities will send their representative to Peiping to discuss these tasks with us."

"Liberation" is the term Peiping always uses for the transfer of Formosa to its control. Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's anti-Communist government of Formosa was certain to reject Chou's bid.

Army of 2,500 Men Fight Rash Of Forest Fires

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP)—Forest Service officials and an army of 2,500 men fought an unprecedented rash of about 150 fires in Arizona and New Mexico today.

Most of the fires were caused by lightning and ranged from less than an acre to 4,800 acres.

"This is undoubtedly the worst time we've had in region history," said M. H. Davis, assistant forester. "Our people are getting very fatigued. Fires are breaking out almost faster than we can keep abreast."

The largest was a 4,800-acre fire on Graham Mountain, south of Safford, Ariz. It broke out two weeks ago and was brought under control a few days ago. Then, late yesterday, wind up to 60 miles an hour fanned it wild again.

Another big one broke out late yesterday in north central New Mexico around the scar left by a fire extinguished about six weeks ago. Davis said the new outbreak, on the north end of the Sangre de Cristo Mountains just south of the Colorado line, had swept three sides of the old burn and covered about 2,000 acres.

Davis said 50 more Indian fire-fighting experts from New Mexico had been asked for duty on a new fire in Coronado National Forest north of Douglas, Ariz. He said 100 soldiers from Ft. Huachuca, Ariz., had been sent out on that one and it had spread to an "excess of 2,000 acres."

In that one forest, 30 lightning-caused fires were reported by late yesterday, he said.

First Private Atomic Reactor for Industry Goes Into Operation

CHICAGO (AP)—The nation's first private nuclear reactor for industrial research went into operation today.

The event gave American industry the first green light to conduct reactor studies without government security restrictions.

The 50,000-watt reactor is at the Armour Research Foundation of Illinois Institute of Technology on Chicago's near South Side. It is the first to be constructed in a highly populated area since the world's first reactor was operated under wartime secrecy at Stagg Field at the University of Chicago.

The reactor, a "solution type," uses as fuel enriched uranium dissolved in about four gallons of water. It was built by Atomics International, a division of North American Aviation, Inc., Canoga Park, Calif. The Atomic Energy Commission supplied the uranium on an "extended loan" basis as required by law.

Dr. Richard F. Humphreys, director of the reactor program, said its most probable frequent use will be the production of radioistopes which will be used in the study of chemicals and various materials.

Dry, Pleasant Weather Prevails Over Most of US

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

There were a few wet spots but generally dry and pleasant weather prevailed in most of the nation today.

Precipitation early this morning was confined to three general areas. Light showers fell in sections of the Great Lakes region; showers and thunderstorms hit parts of Florida and in a belt from Colorado and New Mexico eastward to Missouri and Arkansas.

Stormy weather was reported yesterday in eastern Kansas and western Missouri. Wind gusts were recorded at 115 m.p.h. at Kansas City, Kan., and at 80 m.p.h. at Topeka, Kan. One man was killed and several other persons injured in the wind and rain storm which struck Kansas City, Mo. Storm damage, mostly from falling trees, was reported the worst in 10 years.

Cooler and drier air extended from the Dakotas southward through Oklahoma and Louisiana and eastward to the Atlantic Coast. Biggest cooling was in the upper Great Lakes region, with early morning temperatures about 10 degrees lower than 24 hours earlier.

Sore-Throat Medicine Causes Man's Arrest

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A bus driver says it wasn't booze he imbibed but sore-throat medicine. So a jury acquitted him of a drunk-driving charge.

Glenn Robertson, 45, was arrested last May 20 on the San Bernardino Freeway. The son-in-law of a passenger on the bus later had told police he thought the driver was drunk.

Robertson told a Municipal Court jury that just before boarding the bus he swigged a throat remedy containing 40 per cent alcohol. The aroma of the medicine, he argued, misled police into thinking he was under alcoholic influence.

US Textile Industry Cuts Production

NEW YORK, N. Y. (AP) — "Japanese vacations" are becoming more and more frequent these days in the U.S. cotton textile industry.

Several mills have shut down, claiming low-cost Japanese goods have priced them out of the market. Workers who get laid off call it a "Japanese vacation." Nobody likes to take a Japanese vacation. It's usually payless and sometimes permanent.

The phrase "Japanese vacation" is indicative of the loud complaints you can hear almost any day now from mill executives who produce cotton cloth in New England and the South. They're protesting vociferously about Japanese competition.

The reason is that the Japanese, who pay lower wages and don't have to pay U.S. support prices for raw cotton can sell cotton goods more cheaply. A yard of Japanese gingham sells in this country for 44 cents, including 22 per cent duty. A yard of comparable American cloth sells for 55 cents. U.S. garment manufacturers and retail stores, attracted by the lower price, buy all the Japanese cloth they can get their hands on.

Just how damaging is this competition? Here's what U.S. cotton cloth producers say:

Measured in terms of total U.S. textile production, Japanese imports don't amount to a hill of beans. But the Japanese industry will select two or three key U.S. textile markets, and concentrate its production on those spots. That effect is described as deadly. Prices plummet, inventories pile up. U.S. mills specializing in the kind of goods the Japanese happen to be concentrating on at the moment cut production and sometimes go out of business.

"First it was printcloths and broadcloths," says the representative of a big Southern cotton mill with offices on New York's Worth Street, century-old textile trading center. "Then it was tablecloths and napkins. Until recently, Japanese blouses were a deadly menace; now it's velveteens and ginghams."

Right now, the U.S. cotton textile industry is producing at the rate of about 10 billion yards of cloth a year. Last year Japan shipped 100 million yards of cotton goods to this country, plus blouses, dish towels, sports shirts, diapers and other fabricated items containing an additional 55 to 60 million yards. This year imports of cotton textiles from Japan may reach a total of 250 million yards, including piece goods and finished garments.

That's only about 2½ per cent of total U.S. cotton goods production. But this cold statistic is of little comfort to the U.S. gingham or velveteen producer who has lost his entire market to low-priced Japanese goods.

Knights of Columbus Will Hold Annual Picnic on July 4

The Knights of Columbus will have its annual picnic at the Catholic Community Center, south of Sedalia, Wednesday, July 4, commencing at 1 p.m. The picnic is open to the public.

There will be plenty to eat on sale at the food stand consisting of sandwiches of ham, roast beef, hotdogs and other varieties, potato salad, baked beans and all that goes with an old fashioned picnic.

During the afternoon and evening games will be played and there will be swimming, fishing and boating as well as other recreation.

The big affair will end with a dance.

OBITUARIES

Ira Floyd Bass

Ira Floyd Bass, 58, died unexpectedly at 3:10 p.m. Wednesday at his home in LaMonte, death being attributed to a heart attack he suffered shortly after a few minutes' visiting with friends. Although not in the best of health for some time, he kept active in various affairs in business life.

He was born south of Sedalia Oct. 28, 1897, being the only son of Taylor H. and Dora Bass. As a child, with his parents he resided in the Smithton, Otterville and Tipton communities and in 1913 went to LaMonte, where he attended the public schools.

On Nov. 25, 1925, he was married to Miss Pauline Johns of Lee's Summit, a teacher in the LaMonte school system, who survives, as does a son, John, of the home. For several years he was employed in various businesses at LaMonte, later taking work with the Kroger grocery store in Sedalia, where he served a period of ten years. Following that he was a manager for the Gerbes Food Store in Knob Noster.

The body was brought to the McLaughlin Funeral Chapel in Sedalia where funeral services will be at 2 p.m. Friday, the Rev. Everett Stapler, Rich Hill Methodist minister, to officiate, assisted by the Rev. Jerry Moon, pastor of the LaMonte Methodist Church.

Judge Pile entered the hospital at noon Tuesday.

For many years before Judge Pile served on the Saline County bench he was active in affairs of the county, advocating and supporting progressive programs for the welfare of the county. He was equally active in the community life around Marshall Junction. The Pile homestead was a mile east and about a half mile north of the Junction.

NAACP Urges Direct Action To Win Rights

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Direct political action and passive resistance were urged on the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People, meeting here today, as weapons to win equal civil rights.

"It is within our hands to determine whether there will be a Democratic or Republican 85th Congress," said Clarence Mitchell, top political strategist of the nonpartisan NAACP.

He said Negroes hold the balance of power in 60 congressional contests and 16 senatorial races in November elections. The Negro vote cannot be controlled, he said, but could be tipped either way with "a little direction."

Roy Reuther, one of the three Reuther brothers of the United Auto Workers, went further. He proposed immediate action by a coalition of NAACP, unions and churches "working as a team" to influence House and Senate votes on civil rights in the current Congress.

Both spoke to a Midwestern NAACP "workshop" yesterday as the House Rules Committee in Washington voted 8-3 to send the bipartisan civil rights bill to the House floor. Chairman Smith (D-Va) said it might be scheduled during the week of July 9 for action in the House. Two days were allowed for debate.

The Mahatma Ghandi tactics of passive resistance were recommended as a new Negro weapon to a mass meeting last night by the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, leader of the six-month-old bus boycott in Montgomery, Ala.

He called it "a new and creative method which might be added to the several methods which we must use to make integration a reality."

"Let's not fool ourselves," he told the second mass gathering of the six-day convention, "segregation is still a fact" in both South and North.

"In the South we still confront segregation in its glaring and conspicuous forms. In the North we confront it in its hidden and subtle forms."

Brushing aside suggestions that the NAACP "adopt a policy of moderation," the 27-year-old pastor said, "We cannot afford to slow up. We have a moral obligation to press on."

He said both white and black would benefit from the struggle for desegregation.

"The real tension," he said, "is not between white people and Negro people. The tension is at bottom between justice and injustice."

Hal Boyle's Column—

Ballads Reploce Letters For Courting in Trinidad

PORT OF SPAIN, Trinidad (AP)—You don't have to be able to write love letters to court a girl in old Trinidad.

You tell her with music. And you don't even need to be a musician yourself. You simply fork over a little ready cash to the nearest improverished calypso singer and he creates a quick ballad extolling in song the charms of the girl you're after.

A movie company here now making a film with Rita Hayworth recently had her immortalized in this manner. Total cost —$100.

Calypso songs originally were improvised satires on current events sung to an African rhythm at the annual pre-Lenten carnival.

Today, however, the calypso industry is not much more spontaneous than the art of canning tuna fish. It gets more like Tin Pan Alley every year. The ad libs aren't vocal. They're written out ahead of time.

"The calypsos are becoming Charles S. Espinet, assistant editor of the Trinidad Guardian and an authority on island folk music. "But at parties, where the singers know the guests, they still improvise.'

Calypso singers are a breed apart. Most of them have little education, little formal knowledge of music. They usually come from the other side of the tracks, or, as the saying here goes "behind the bridge."

But they have a keen sense of rhythm and a quick eye for the absurdities and pretensions of the human race.

They all go by colorful or high-sounding names—such as "Lord Melody," "Lord Creator," "King Radio," "Cowboy Jones," "Lord Invader," "Attila the Hun," and "The Mighty Sparrow.'

Calypso singers — there are about 100—average $1,200 a year income.

Many of the singers complain that visitors have stolen and exploited their tunes without paying them any royalties.

A gentleman named Vital Angel has just started a music publishing firm here with the hope of stamping out tune robbing by foreigners.

"Some calypsos are being played all over the United States," he said, "while the calypsonians here who originated them do not get enough money to buy a set of teeth."

France's Assembly Approves Tax Plan For Aged Pensions

PARIS (AP) — France's National Assembly has approved Premier Guy Mollet's scheme to boost old-age pensions with new taxes on big cars—most of them American-made—and other revenue.

Some 5½ million persons with limited incomes will receive additional annual payments of 31,200 francs ($89.13) under Mollet's plan. They begin at age 65, or 60 if the recipient can't work.

Mexico had 411,752 tourists in 1954 compared to 549,314 in 1955.

In Other Hospitals

Jerry Alfred Morris, 6-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Morris, 228 West Saline, was dismissed from Children's Mercy Hospital June 25. He was admitted on the 15th after falling out of a tree, fracturing his elbow.

Accidents

A two-car collision, with no resulting injury, occurred Wednesday about 5:00 p. m. at 200 West Second.

The accident involved a 1950 Chevrolet driven by Shirley Jean Shoe, 1810 South Montgomery, and a 1947 Chrysler driven by William Arthur Stone, 1302 East Ninth. The Chevrolet was damaged on the left front fender but the Chrysler was not damaged.

Two cars were in a collision at Broadway and Grand about 3:32 p. m. Wednesday. No persons were injured.

Involved was a 1955 Chevrolet station wagon driven by Frank W. Dick, 1804 South Grand, and a 1952 Pontiac sedan driven by Conway R. Downs, Route 4, Sedalia. The Chevrolet was damaged on the front end as was the Pontiac.

Monday was a bad day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dillard Dunham in Lincoln. First Johnny, the three-year-old son, cut his leg so badly on a piece of glass that he had to be taken to Dr. T. R. McDee, and then the young daughter, Velveeta, stuck a thorn so deeply in her foot that she had to go to the doctor to have it removed.

Betty Butler, eight-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Butler, Lincoln, received a deep wound in her leg when she fell on something while playing, and was taken to Dr. T. R. McDee to have it treated.

Fires

The Pettis County Fire Department made a run about 10:30 a.m. Wednesday to a grass fire, located on a farm owned by Richard Schroeder, about four miles north on Highway 65.

It was a small fire which was quickly extinguished, and no damage resulted.

The Sedalia Fire Department was called to the residence of Emmett Jackson, 618 West Osage, about 3:45 Wednesday afternoo.

The fire, which was out on arrival, was evidently caused by lightning which struck during Wednesday s storm.

The Sedalia fire companies made a run to the Old Missouri Homestead, 421 South Lamine about 5:26 Wednesday afternoon.

The building, owned by Iva Rice, caught fire when a short in the transformer on a neon sign occurred. The fire was out on arrival.

The Pettis County Fire Department made a run to the farm of E. W. Thompson, located on the west 16th Street road, about noon Wednesday.

The department quickly stopped the blaze, a grass fire, and no damage resulted.

Colorado Cowboy Finds Himself in California

SAN PEDRO, Calif. (AP)—A Colorado cowboy says he saddled up Old Paint about three weeks ago and rode into town for a "quick one with the boys."

Charles Ellis, 20, told police he doesn't remember what happened next but he woke up here yesterday and decided to try to find out how he got here.

Officers telephoned the town—Cheyenne Wells—and said they were told that Ellis is wanted there on a charge of stealing a truck owned by his employer, rancher W. I. Howard, on charges of speeding, driving while intoxicated and creating a disturbance.

Asked the whereabouts of the truck, police said, Ellis shook his head. He doesn't remember the disturbance either, he said, or the driving. And Old Paint?

Old Paint is missing too.

Kenneth Poynter

Kenneth Poynter Is New Manager Of Mattingly's

Kenneth M. Poynter, has replaced Art Cassidy as manager of the Mattingly Brothers Store. Poynter assumed the managership of the Sedalia store on June 18, serving for a short while with Cassidy for the purpose of instruction of the store.

Poynter was with the S. S. Kresge Co. for several years before aligning with Mattingly Brothers this past spring. He has been in the variety store business for 14 years, starting when he was only 16 years old.

Poynter graduated from high school in East St. Louis, attended Washington University and spent two years in the United States Navy.

He served in the Navy aboard the aircraft carrier escort USS Manila Bay, serving in the South Pacific most of the time as a gunner's mate.

Poynter has a wife, Virginia, and three children, Karen, 4, Vicki, 3, and Scott, two months. They reside at 1100 South Church. They are Methodist by religion and he is connected with the Masonic Lodge.

The slogan about Sedalia "Where Folks Enjoy Life," has a meaning for the Poynters. In their travelling through here to the Lake of the Ozarks they passed through Sedalia many times. They decided that this truly must be a place where "Folks Enjoy Life" and that they would like to live in this city. They have lived in many states and towns but Sedalia, Missouri, according to Poynter, is a clean, beautiful town, one in which they chose to live.

Pakistan and Soviet Sign Trade Agreement

KARACHI, Pakistan (AP) — Western-allied Pakistan and the Soviet Union have signed their first trade agreement. Russian experts came here a month ago to open negotiations as part of the Soviets' new economic drive in southern Asia.

The total amount of the trade anticipated was not announced.

Air Alarm

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Two detectives admitted they are not so hot at detecting fire. After turning in an alarm at a hotel they learned the "smoke" was only frigid air from the hotel's air conditioning units.

TV Drunk Comedy Overdone

Presentation of radio and TV programs in a more wholesome atmosphere by self-regulated censorship has become an objective of the national networks according to news from the east.

Recent criticism of the effect of rock and roll music on the morals of minors has the broadcast industry lending an attentive ear, which leads the editor of the Mexico Ledger to comment:

"That this cleanup program is being undertaken is encouraging and timely . . . On the whole that which is offensive, in poor taste and unwholesome, is being minimized. This is most important."

Indeed it is important.

But there is much work yet to be done.

Since we are not opposed to a little social drinking, we do not like to appear squeamish or prudish about television's portrayal of characters indulging in alcoholic consumption. But there's a limit to it in an hour's performance of drunken characters with the setting in a dusky tavern. It stresses the patience of good taste. Especially since it's supposed to be funny watching the heroine build up from innocence to gulping down mixed drinks until she becomes blind drunk.

For those who have limited appreciation of comedy drama in such form, and to the uninitiated teen-agers who spent an hour watching "Happy Birthday" on TV Monday night, the moral of the show seemed to be that a gal in love with a dumb guy can only make him see it by getting drunk and acting a fool until she finally get's her man under a table for a spooning session. There's some brawling; and women drunks in the supporting cast. Two faces on the bar room floor under a table a second time and the curtain comes down for the finale.

"Happy Birthday" was surely a big laugh!!? It must have made an indelible impression on the minds of the nation's teenage girls who viewed it. Sure it was just a story, but the realism of "how to get your man if he's balky," was there.

A promotional piece for this picture appeared in the TV log of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat to this effect: "Producers' Showcase (Color). TV Preview says "Happy Birthday," starring Betty Field and Barry Nelson, is strictly a fun show which relies heavily on production tricks and some accomplished acting. As mousy librarian Audie Bemis, Miss Field runs the gamut of giddiness as she succumbs more and more to the influence of liquor. Barry Nelson does what he can with the less showy role of Addie's bank teller flame, while the choicest supporting roles are deliciously handled by Enid Markey and Luella Gear as a couple of barflies. More laughs than any drama show has offered in weeks."

Is this picture an example of how the broadcast industry proposes to minimize offensiveness, poor taste and unwholesomeness in TV presentations? Then the American public and the sensitive teen-agers are in for more laughs than their sides can stand without splitting if strictly fun shows depend for their appeal on giddy heroines under the influence of liquor with supporting roles deliciously handled by women bar flies.

If the broadcast industry really is keeping a particularly cautious censorship ear open for material that might lead youngsters astray, then we wish them "Happy Birthday" on the anniversary of their attempt to get the job done better than they have succeeded so far.

Washington Merry-Go-Round—

Nehru Didn't Relish Talking to Dulles

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — Quite a few diplomatic cables were exchanged across the Atlantic before the State Department was able to sidetrack the long-scheduled visit of Prime Minister Nehru of India.

At first the prime minister was advised informally that the President's illness would interfere with the visit and that while Mr. Eisenhower would be delighted to see him briefly, most of the conferring must be done with Secretary of State Dulles.

This did not please the Indian premier, who has talked to Mr. Dulles before and doesn't particularly like him. He hasn't forgotten that Dulles statement siding with Portugal in the row with India over Goa.

So Nehru was so burned up at the idea of talking to Dulles, not Ike, that his aides indicated he might not come to the USA at all.

It was at this point that he sent the cable to the President suggesting that the trip be deferred until Ike was fully recovered.

GOP Press on Ike

This newspaperman's mail has increased as a result of the President's illness. Most of my readers seem to be most sympathetic toward Mr. Eisenhower, but want all the facts about his health. Some of them, Republicans, believe GOP leaders are taking advantage of the President, imposing on him, risking his life further by demanding that he run again. A few editors have criticized my column on Ike's health.

On the other hand, some of the outstanding Republican publishers in the nation have been extremely frank, much franker regarding the second illness than regarding the first.

Wrote John S. Knight of the Detroit Free Press, Miami Herald, Akron Beacon-Journal, and associated newspapers:

"The seriousness of the President's illness has been minimized by friendly editorialists who point to Adlai Stevenson's operation for kidney stones; Harry Truman's gall bladder operation; the recent surgery on Gov. Averell Harriman's prostate gland; Senator Lyndon Johnson's heart attack; and Senator Stuart Symington's sympathectomy for high blood pressure in 1947.

"How idle and misleading it is to pretend that the President, a former heart case and chronic sufferer from gastric disturbances, can fully regain his old vigor. But in their anxiety over the future, the Republican strategists and the big guns in the business world are determined to have Ike run, even though he may not last through a second term under the pressures of the job."

More Frankness

Here are other quotes from Republican or conservative newspapers showing a much more forthright approach this time to the problem of the President's health:

Toledo Blade: "A great many doctors must have said to themselves that they never before heard a doctor speak with such optimism about a patient right after he had undergone major surgery." . . . Richmond, Va., New Leader (Democratic but strongly pro-Eisenhower): "Surgery is nothing to laugh off. It means a strain on an already weakened heart. . . . Twice within a nine-month period his body has given way. What might happen in the future is anybody's guess." . . . Hal Burton in Newsday: "The complex of the indispensable man is growing up again in Washington. The last time we suffered that complex was when Franklin Roosevelt was President. He was a great man, but not indispensable. Nobody is. The moment we hit this point in the United States we shall have substituted an elected dictator for an elected President." . . . Houston Chronicle: "The (London) Daily Herald commented with some justification that millions of American voters may "feel a little sickened, perhaps, if they feel or know that Ike's expectation of life is being sacrificed on the altar of the Republican party'."

Washington Whirl

Tom Dewey told friends in Washington last week: "I'll be seeing you in 1957." They took this to mean the dapper ex-New York governor intends either to run for the Senate or to join the Eisenhower administration. Most likely: He'll replace John Foster Dulles as Secretary of State.

Guest Editorial—

PORTLAND OREGONIAN: This, Too, Will Pass. We have heard some expressions of annoyance among the Older Set over the current teen-age rage, a young hillbilly entertainer named Elvis Presley. We were about to identify Mr. Presley more explicitly as a singer, but out of deference to sensitive feelings we chose the less controversial noun.

Elvis puts on a most active act on TV, contorting his face and body as though in great pain, whomping the daylights out of his defenseless guitar, and uttering unintelligible shrieks and groans. The latter manifestations, preserved on phonograph records, are selling like mad.

A good many parents seem fearful for the future of American youth if it can see merit in Mr. Presley's aggravated assaults on the musical idiom. We would remind such worriers of their own youth. Don't they recall their parents threatening to smash the loud speaker of the battery radio, if Rudy Vallee megaphoned the Maine Stein Song through it once again? Or fretting over juvenile appreciation for Cab Calloway's scat lyrics? But somehow the youngsters of yesterday grew up to be the sensible citizens of today, and now Rudy's croonings and Cab's hi-de-hi's sound sort of pleasantly old fashioned.

Brace up, parents of '56. In another 20 years Elvis Presley really won't seem so bad, and your grown-up teen-agers will be biting their nails over the entertainment sensation of '76.

Solid Contradiction—

John B. Hollister, U. S. foreign aid chief, made a healthy contribution the other day when he sought to counter the oft-heard declarations that Russia is outdoing us among neutral nations.

He said that when our aid efforts are compared carefully with those of the Soviet Union, the Russians are "hardly in the running."

That doesn't mean, of course, that the Reds do not make substantial headway by propaganda and other devices. But it does suggest that just possibly we are not totally at the Kremlin's mercy in this labor to serve the "uncommitted" peoples.

There is some feeling here that altogether too much is said by our own public figures to the effect that we are "losing" the neutral countries. Even if it were wholly true — and one suspects a good deal of political exaggeration—this constant moaning seems a poor solution.

National self-criticism is good and necessary. But if it runs a point into the ground, its purpose can be defeated. Hollister applied a sound corrective.

Do-It Done?

There was a note in print the other day that the do-it-yourself trend was ever so slightly on the wane.

No doubt this word will pass like a forest fire through the hardcore members of the pipe-and-slippers fraternity. They can stop pretending that they really mean to get down to the store next weekend and pick up those tools. They can stop looking busy at their library desks when they'd really like to be curled up with a good book or magazine or squinting at TV.

If this reverse trend takes good hold, the fraternity may widen its beachhead with astonishing speed. There are a lot of reluctant fugitives from the easy chair among those who each week are tumbling off ladders, hammering their thumbs and painting over their mistakes.

The fellow who said "a man's home is his castle" must have meant he should live in it like a king. We know a good many who would like to get out of the tool shed and back in the throne room.

The World Today—

Secretary of State Dulles Hops Again

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles can hop from one extreme to another without visible effort. This time it was on the question: Is Russia losing its grip on Communists outside Russia?

He said: Two months ago — the satellites were "still under the iron heel of Soviet force"; six days ago — the "forces of despotism are more highly organized than ever"; yesterday — Russia's hold on world communism is "gravely imperiled."

With that optimistic statement he seemed to help the new Red line laid down by Moscow: that Red parties everywhere should act like national parties doing their own thinking.

It is possible in time that Communist parties outside Russia will be independent, will quarrel among themselves and with Russia, and that international communism may disintegrate.

For once the Kremlin relaxes its control — and no one can be sure that has happened yet — it may open a door which can never be closed.

No one, including Dulles, can be dogmatic about that yet. There's not enough evidence for it yet.

On what did he base his switch? All that's known to have happened recently is this: Red leaders in Italy, France, East Germany, Britain and the United States asked critical questions of the new bosses in Russia:

"Since you were the most trusted aides of Stalin during all those years of the crimes you now say he committed, what did you do to stop them? And what role did you play in them?"

But these were the minimum questions the Red leaders outside Russia could ask because they were the most obvious ones. They were being asked all around the world by Communist rank-and-filers and non-Communists alike.

The Red leaders outside Russia — except Yugoslavia's Tito who had broken with Stalin — had not only been Stalin's obedient yes-men through the years of his erimes but his undeviating supporters.

It was because they didn't deviate that they remained leaders. So the questions they asked of Stalin's heirs in the Kremlin were really the same questions being asked of them by their own countrymen and their own party members.

Their questions asked of Nikita Khrushchev, Russian Communist party boss who made the revelations about Stalin, can be interpreted as a request to Khrushchev to take them off the spot by giving answers that will satisfy their own countrymen.

When Khrushchev and his colleagues in Moscow decided — it took them three years after Stalin's death—to disclose his crimes, they certainly must have known what they were doing.

They must have known that in stripping Stalin naked before history, they were raising doubts about themselves — and all Red leaders everywhere who had been Stalin's errand boys — and that questions about their roles in Stalin's career would be asked.

It is possible that they have the answers ready and will give them when they think best. It is also possible they arranged for the Red leaders outside Russia to ask the questions they did.

Dulles said yesterday the questions raised by Red leaders in the non-Communist countries — although they were almost identical — "were not a prearranged pattern at all."

Unless he has information not known to the public, he is stating an opinion and not a fact. He is also creating an optimism which may have no basis in reality.

Looking Backward...

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Corn growers of the county reported the hot and dry weather had not damaged the growing crop and that the wheat crop was the largest and best since in 1918.

1931

Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Hurley moved from 216 East Sixth to 725 West Fourth, which they recently purchased, and remodeled the residence.

1931

Edward C. Connor and William Ramlow, young Sedalians, were at Londonderry, Ireland, while on a tour abroad with an orchestra composed of University of Missouri boys.

1931

L. F. Lee, Beaman, was treated at Bothwell Hospital after a fall from a horse in which he sustained a fractured right hip.

FORTY YEARS AGO

A gift watch presented the Rev. C. V. Criss, district superintendent of the Methodist Church, by the St. Louis conference, was stolen by a sneak thief from his apartment at 109 West Seventh. A vest from which it was removed was found in an alley.

1916

Joseph Stern, recently employed in the general offices of the MKT, is home from the South and has taken a position with the telegraph department of that railway.

1916

Assistant Superintendent D. H. Robinson, of the Missouri Pacific, was at Nevada with John Cannon, general superintendent, and other officials rushing equipment there for troops mobilized at that place. The troops were at Camp Clark.

As Sedalia Sees It—

Missouri Not Included In 'Critically Distressed' Areas

By Esther Van Wagoner Tufty
Of Our Washington Bureau

WASHINGTON — Unemployment is "not serious" but it is "spotty."

Both the Republican administration and AFL-CIO labor leaders agree on that, altho there is more apprehension by Labor about the seriousness of those distressed areas.

Of the 67.8 million in the national labor force, the number of unemployed, as of week of May 6 to 12, was 2,608,000 of which about half are receiving unemployment payments. (These figures are based on the number of those unemployment checks and monthly spot checking in some 330 areas.)

But to some out-of-work people the prospects are not rosey. In a country as big as the United States, with diversified employment, parts of the economy can be going full blast while others are declining.

Right now every automobile and farm equipment center is hit. The reason is mostly a slow-down on buying. This includes Detroit; Flint; Kenosha, Wisconsin; South Bend, Indiana, and many small towns manufacturing automotive supplies.

The Northeast, which long enjoyed full employment, now is in a bad way as mills move to the South and demand for woolen articles is lessened by competition from cottons and synthetics.

Those old, expensive-to-operate coal mines in West Virginia, and some parts of Eastern Pennsylvania and Kentucky, have thrown many out of work.

Railroad repair centers, such as Altoona, Pa., have suffered mostly from the advancement of Diesel engines.

The unemployed fair better in some states than others.

In Missouri, he can coast for 24 weeks on a maximum unemployment compensation of $25 per week. Average payment during March, 1956, was $24.49 per week.

The Labor Department reports no Missouri areas are classified as "critically distressed."

Thinking It Over

By Robert L. Dieffenbacher, D.D.

"The little toy dog is covered with dust, but sturdy and staunch he stands," was written many years ago by Eugene Field. As we read the poem we feel a certain nostalgia for our childhood or for the childhood of our children.

There was something very satisfying in those bygone days when important things happened in ways which appear insignificant today. At least the enchantment is not present in adulthood.

Someday in the future a new generation will see the little toy spaceman covered with dust, and will feel a nostalgia for the childhood days of 1956. They will look back on significant incidents in their childhood, and in the early years of children who have grown into adulthood.

What are we doing today for the little tots of America so that they may remember worthwhile incidents as important?

Will they remember sitting on our knees while we told them the story of Christmas?

Will they remember the family prayers which influenced their future lives?

Will they yearn for the days when the family went as a unit to church and Sunday School?

Remember that the things we do today with our children are the things they will remember as the important foundation experiences of their adulthood.

US Officials Pledge Action On GI Troops

HEIDELBERG, Germany (AP) — America s top representatives in Germany have promised speedy action to reduce friction between U.S. serviceman and German residents.

West German officials have charged that troublemaking by Allied troops has increased rapidly this year. Allied officials denied such an increase, but said steps are being taken to assure proper conduct by troops stationed in Germany.

Gen. H. I. Hodes, U.S. Army commander in chief in Europe, "prompt and effective corrective action" is being taken wherever necessary.

"Commanders thoroughly understand that misbehavior on the part of troops and particularly criminal acts are not tolerated in the American Army," Hodes said, abhorrent to Americans as it is to our German neighbors.

"The Army is not a haven for bad actors or criminals, nor does it afford these offenders the protection of anonymity. Commanders are pursuing vigorously their investigations into these situations and are taking prompt remedial action."

Hodes' statement was forwarded to West German Foreign Minister Heinrich von Brentano by U.S. Ambassador James B. Conant.

In an accompanying letter, Conant said he was confident military authorities "are taking every appropriate measure to ensure that good relations continue now and in the future."

Wilhelm Hoegner, president minister of Bavaria, alleged recently that incidents of violence, particularly rape, involving U.S. troops in the first half of 1956 have already equaled the total for last year.

Other German officials have charged there have been increases in robberies and assaults.

Hodes said "statistics do not sustain charges that these alleged crimes and misdemeanors have increased" but "it is not our intetion to stand on statistics."

French Launch Battle To Save Military Bases in Tunisia

PARIS (AP)—France has launched a diplomatic battle to save her military bases in newly independent Tunisia in the face of stiff opposition from the government of Tunisian Premier Habib Bourguiba.

Bourguiba is here to negotiate a treaty covering relations between France and her former North African protectorate. He told reporters, "We admit that for the moment Tunisian forces cannot alone assume defense of Tunisia, so French troops can fill this role during the transition period."

"But," he added, "we will never admit that the presence of French forces in our country—and particularly at (the big Mediterranean port of) Bizerte—can take on a permanent character under pretext of needs of Western strategy or defense of the free world."

This was an obvious reply to French Foreign Minister Christian Pineau's statement to the French Senate this week that "there is no question of envisaging the departure of the French army from Morocco and Tunisia."

City Officials Asked To Waive Regulation Requiring 16 Teeth

INGLEWOOD, Calif. (AP) — The City Council has been asked to waive a rule that policemen must have at least 16 natural teeth. Calvin Alvin Potter, a city recreation director, wants to join the police force. But he has only nine teeth, he says—he lost the others playing football.

"Well," observed Councilman Fred C. Jones, "I had an uncle who could bite a nail in two with his gums."

The other councilmen looked silently at Jones, then took Potter's plea under advisement.

'Poor' King Gives Away $4,000 Check

FLORENCE, Italy (AP)—Ex-King Farouk of Egypt, who complains that he's a poor man now, has made good on a $4,000 promise to a television quiz contestant.

Farouk's secretary and a Rome attorney, Giulio d'Amelio, arrived at the home of shapely young Marisa Zocchi near Florence and handed her a certified check for 2½ million lire ($4,000).

Marisa won the same amount recently on the program Lascia o Raddoppia (Double or Nothing) by answering questions on bicycle racing. She announced tearfully on the program that she would stop at that point rather than try for the $8,000 jackpot in order to be sure of some prize money to help her ailing mother.

Favorites Are Eliminated From English Tennis Tourney

WIMBLEDON, England (AP) — If this were Belmont Park, Longchamps or Epsom Downs, the place would be littered with torn-up two dollar tickets.

The 70th all-England tennis championships have turned into that kind of a tournament with the favorites dropping out like quarter horses in a mile and a half race.

Three of the top seeded players already have been relegated to the sidelines and there are a couple of youngsters lurking around eager to show the rated stars how silly it all can be.

The man who is happiest about the elimination so far of Jaroslav Drobny (No. 5) and Budge Patty of Paris and Los Angeles (No. 4) is Lew Hoad, the non-smiling Australian.

Taciturn Hoad hurried over to court No. 1 yesterday to watch young Bobby Wilson of Britain throw Patty out of the singles 12-10, 2-6, 6-3, 6-4. Then he issued what probably is the longest Hoad statement on record.

"This improves my chances 100 per cent," he said. "Patty always has given me a lot of trouble and we were seeded to meet in the semi-finals." Drobny went out on the opening day Monday.

Now Hoad appears to have clear sailing to the semifinals at least. The only seeded man left in his half of the draw is Ham Richardson, an Oxford student from Westfield, N. J.

The Americans haven't been rolling along very smoothly. Another Yank must go today when eighth seeded Vic Seixas of Philadelphia and Herb Flam of Beverly Hills, Calif. keep a date on the center court.

Another American who'll be seen on the center court is Althea Gibson of New York, seeded fourth among the women and ranked by many as the likely successor to Louise Brough. Miss Gibson should have no trouble with Ann Shilcook of Britain.

Phillies Take Another Game From Braves

The Associated Press

It isn't how long a winning streak that counts in the major league pennant races this season — it's how fast you can bounce back from defeat.

Take that madcap National League scramble. Milwaukee's Braves had run up 11 straight successes before being jolted by Phildelphia. Then the Phils laid the wood to 'em again last night, 4-3 in 11 innings and for all their hustle the Braves have no more than a half-game hold on first place.

Cincinnati lies just 12 percentage points back after routing Pittsburgh 10-2. And if the Redlegs, who have won five of their last six games, can do it again tonight while the Braves are idle, they'll grab back the NL lead.

Brooklyn's Dodgers closed to within 1½ games of Milwaukee by beating Chicago 6-2. That gave the Brooks a sweep of the three-game set with the Cubs after a double-header loss to Cincinnati Sunday.

In the American League, the New York Yankees whipped Kansas City and strengthened their lead to 2½ games as the Chicago White Sox were beaten 11-9 by Boston after winning nine in a row. The White Sox, who swept York's only losses on the just-ended Western trip, picked up only three games.

Cleveland's Indians made it an eight-run Baltimore lead to bop the Orioles 12-11 in 11 innings. And Detroit's Tigers staggered through their 11th start without a victory, losing to Washington 3-1.

New Attitude Helps Hagge Win Pro Golf Money

DES MOINES (AP) — A different attitude and a deft putting touch have made Marlene Bauer Hagge, 5 feet 3 and a shapely 120 pounds, the top money winner among the women professional golfers.

A year ago she was ninth and didn't win a major tournament.

But today she teed off in the first round of the 72-hole Women's Western Golf Championship with five titles to her credit and 1956 winnings of $9,196.

Her sister Alice offered this explanation:

"She always had the game but she is more serious now. Her attitude has changed. Her mental attitude is more of winning now. She never applied herself. Now she is."

Marlene, 22, added, "I have more confidence too. But I haven't changed my technique."

Told that Patty Berg, who'll shoot for her sixth Western Open crown and is second to Marlene in golf earnings this year, thought improved putting and approaching had been big factors, Marlene remarked: "Well, I have been putting very good."

Patty, the veteran redhead who lost the Ladies Professional Golfers Assn. title to Mrs. Hagge last week in a sudden-death one-hole playoff, had warm praise for Marlene's short game.

"She is putting very well and hitting the greens. That's a combination hard to beat. She is wonderful this year."

Swings Into British Women's Quarterfinals

SUNNINGDALE, England (AP)—Four American girls swung into the quarterfinals of the British Women's Amateur golf championship today.

The quartet of Americans still in the running for the championship were Margaret (Wiffi) Smith of St. Clair, Mich., Polly Riley of Fort Worth, Mary Ann Downey of Baltimore and Mary Patton Janssen of Charlottesville, Va.

At least one of the Americans was sure to be eliminated today, for Miss Riley was paired against Miss Downey. Miss Smith met Pat O'Sullivan of Ireland and Miss Janssen, surprise of the tourney, met England's Elizabeth Price. Angela Ward of England played Mrs. Leiselotte Strenger of Germany in the only non-American match.

Rallies Lift St. Paul Into Third Position

By The Associated Press

Last ditch rallies brought Saint Paul twin victories Wednesday night, and lifted the Saints into third place in the American Assn.

St. Paul scored three runs in the bottom of the seventh inning of the abbreviated opener to beat Charleston, 5-4. The Saints tallied another trio in the last of the eighth for a 6-5 nightcap victory. They slipped into third past Minneapolis as the Millers lost, 8-4, to Louisville.

Indianapolis strengthened its hold on second place by beating the top rung Denver Beras, 2-1, and Omaha trimmed Wichita, 5-3, in a battle of second division clubs.

Tom Cheney's five-hit hurling paced Omaha to its victory over Wichita. Stan Jok homered for the Cardinals and Charley White hit a four-bagger for the Braves.

20 Years As Duke Coach

DURHAM, N.C. (AP)—Eddie Cameron, Duke University's athletic director, has been on the athletic staff of the school for 30 years. He started as freshman football coach and has also served as head coach in football and basketball.

Darrell Floyd, Furman University's All-America basketball player, has been chosen the Southern Confernce athlete of 1956.

Jerry Kindall, Minnesota shortstop, led the Big Ten in hitting for 1956 with a .440 mark. He made 22 hits in 50 trips.

Mickey Mantle of th Yankees was the first major leaguer to hit 20 home runs during 1956.

Babe Ruth League Games Friday Night

The Babe Ruth League games, which were scheduled for Wednesday night, were postponed to Friday night because of wet grounds.

From Golf to Racing

OCEANPORT, N.J. (AP) — The silks of the Triangle stable were seen here for the first time. They belong to Plainfield, N.J., manufacturer John E. McAuliffe who also sponsors a round-robin golf tournament for women professionals. Glen Felkner trains for his new stable.

Don Heinrich, former University of Washington quarterback, scored two touchdowns for the New York Giants in 1955. Both were on keeper plays. He also passed for two touchdowns.

Intercollegiate Golf Tournament Into Marathon

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The 59th National Intercollegiate golf championship went into the marathon stage today.

Two rounds of 18-hole matches were due to cut the field to eight by nightfall. And, by day's end, either medalist Rex Baxter Jr., of Houston, or defending champion Joe Campbell of Purdue—perhaps both—will be sidelined.

If the two stalwarts survive the morning round, they'll tangle in the afternoon. Baxter, who smothered the field by six strokes in the qualifier, has the big problem as he goes against Tom Beard of LSU, who fired a 71—with four threes on the last six holes—to oust Texas Tech's classy John Cain yesterday.

Most of the favorites came through the first round over Ohio State's 7,120-yard par 72 course. Campbell, who was two under par in defeating Ernie George of San Jose in the first round, faced Don Sechrest, one of four survivors from Oklahoma A&M this morning.

John Garrett of Rice, last year's runner-up, smothered Fred Wilt of Ohio U. 7 and 6 in the opening round. He had Frank Wharton of Houston, a 74 shooter, as his opening opposition today.

Double 18-hole rounds are scheduled tomorrow, with the 36-hole final Saturday.

First Rice Scholar

NEW YORK (AP) — Charles D. Nord of Wappingers Falls, N.Y., will enter Vanderbilt University in September on a four-year scholarship. He is the first Grantland Rice Memorial Scholar. The memorial, named for the late sports writer, is supported by a grant from the Thoroughbred Racing Assn.

The 1790 U. S. census (the first) cost $44,000; that of 1950 cost 90 million dollars.

Appreciative Boyer Wallops Near Record

NEW YORK (AP)—They're letting Kenny Boyer alone this year and the St. Louis Cardinals sophomore third baseman is so appreciative he is paying handsome dividends by socking home runs at a near record pace.

Last year, when Harry Walker, an expert on hitting to the opposite field, succeeded Eddie Stanky as manager of the Cardinals, he insisted on trying to teach the right-handed Boyer to hit to right field.

The free-swinging youngster became so confused, he not only failed miserably but he also forgot how to pull. As a result, despite 18 home runs, he batted a disappointing .264.

A new year and a new manager have changed things considerably. Freddy Hutchinson has adopted a "hands off" policy and the 25-year-old slugger has gone back to style that produced three outstanding minor league seasons and made him one of the brightest major league prospects to come up to the Cardinals.

Boyer was the big gun in yesterday's 6-0 triumph over the New York Giants, slamming two home runs and a single and driving in three runs. His home runs came in his first two times at bat, boosting his season's total to 19, tops in the National League. He also leads the circuit with 57 runs batted in and his .338 batting average is second only to the .344 mark of Cincinnati's Ed Bailey.

"They fouled me all up last year, insisting I hit to right field," Boyer explained. That was the manager's pet theory, hitting the ball to the opposite field. That's all right if you're a punch hitter like he was. But I don't believe you should try to make a singles hitter out of a free swinger like myself.

"Funny thing, I'm swinging my natural way and I find I'm getting more singles than ever before."

Meadow Gold, Hamms Beer Win Industrial Games at Housel Park

Meadow Gold broke a 1 to 1 tie in the sixth inning to defeat the Moose Club 7 to 2 in the first game at Housel Park Tuesday night.

In the first half of the sixth, Meadow Gold chalked up six runs to make the score 7 to 1 and in the Moose Club marked up one more. Rabourn allowed the Moose Club three hits.

Hamms Beer defeated Griesedieck Beer by a score of 13 to 2 in the second game. The game was called after five innings due to more than a seven-run lead. Griesedieck scored twice in the second inning but was shut out for the rest of the game.

Thursday night's schedule is: 7 p.m. Tom's TV vs. Jolly Welders; 9 p.m. Jaycees vs. Sealtest Milk.

Illegal Mauever

BLACKSBURG, Va. (AP)—C. P. (Sally) Miles, faculty chairman of athletics at Virginia Tech and one of the founders of the Southern Conference, won't ever forget the first football game he ever witnessed.

It was before the turn of the century. North Carolina and Virginia were involved in a game at Richmond.

"I remember seeing this Virginia boy breaking away and heading down the sidelines, apparently touchdown bound," Miles recalls. "But, all of a sudden, a fan along the sidelines reached out with a cane, hooked the boy's leg and tripped him."

North Carolina won—by a touchdown.

Track Athletes Try for Place On Olympic Team

LOS ANGELES (AP) — An amazing collection of track and field athletes compete here tomorrow and Saturday for places on the United States Olympic team, and in no less than 13 of the 17 events, competitors have bettered or equaled the Olympic records.

In some instances, the competition here could be even tougher than at the games at Melbourne, Australia, in the fall. Take the pole vault. The Olympic record is 14 feet 11½ inches set by the Rev. Bob Richards in 1952. Four vaulters in the trials, including Richards, have cleared 15 feet this year. The others are Don Bragg of Villanova, Bob Gutowski of Occidental and Ron Morris of Southern California. Only three can make the team.

Even stiffer competition comes in the 800-meter run and the 110-meter high hurdles. In both, competitors who might beat the best of all othe other nations might not be fast enough to make Uncle Sam's team.

Coach Jim Kelly of the U. S. track and field team cautions against rating the nation's athletes too high because those of other countries have also improved.

Little LEAGUERS

The Elks minors, A team, will play at the Little League Stadium Friday at 4:30 p.m. The B team will play Friday at 4:30 p.m. at the Smith-Cotton High School practice field.

Redbirds Come Home, Fans See New Staff

By The Associated Press

St. Louis Cardinal fans get their first opportunity Friday to see their "new look" team.

The Redbirds haven't played at Busch Stadium since General Manager Frank Lane pulled his four-for-four swap with the New York Giants recently.

St. Louis finished a 5-8 road trip yesterday with a 6-0 whitewash job over the New York Giants at the Polo Grounds as Tom Poholsky spun a five-hitter and Ken Boyer cracked two home runs. The club has an open date today and begins a four-game series with Cincinnati on Friday.

The trade sent Red Schoendienst, Jackie Brandt, Bill Sarni and Dick Littlefield to the Giants in exchange for Alvin Dark, Whitey Lockman, Ray Katt and Don Liddle.

Boyer's two homers gave him 19 for the season and the National League lead in that department.

In Kansas City, the Athletics again fell before the New York Yankees as Tom Sturdivant pitched a five-hitter and Hank Bauer belted his 16th homer for a 5-2 win. It was the third straight for New York over the A's.

Underdog Wins Bout With a TKO

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ike Chestnut and his walloping right hand were steaming today for another crack at a ranking featherweight.

Chestnut, the unrated underdog, stopped fourth-ranking Carmelo Costa of Brooklyn last night on a TKO in 29 seconds of the eighth round in a scheduled 10 at Capitol Arena.

Costa had never fought outside New York before last night—and never before had he been stopped in 36 contests.

"The officiating was rotten" fumed Manager Steve Paris and trainer Jerry Salica.

Paris protested Referee Harry Volkman should have let the fight continue. Carmelo had risen after an eight count and claimed he was all right. Paris also criticized Volkman for not penalizing Chestnut for what the Costa camp charged were low blows.

Volkman called the halt after Costa went down from a clubbing left for the second time in the match. Chestnut did most of his damage with body blows and a long right that dropped his man for an eight count ended by the bell in the first and staggered him in the fourth.

Through seven rounds Volkman scored it 70-59 for Chestnut, Judge Ben Alperstein 69-62 and Judge Charles Buck 68-60. The AP called it 68-62.

The victory was Ike's 21st—only his third by a knockout — in 29 bouts that include three draws. Costa lost his fourth against 29 wins and four draws. Chestnut, at 130, had a single pound weight advantage.

To Buy Hospital Equipment—

Over 40 Sorority Members Will Help With Car Washing

Over 40 representatives of the four chapters of Beta Sigma Phi have volunteered to take part in "Operation Car Wash" Saturday to help raise funds to buy special equipment for the new hospital wing at Bothwell Hospital.

Headed by Grace Farley, chairman of the ways and means committee of the Beta Sigma Phi City Council, the young ladies will wash automobiles on the Dan Robinson Used Car Lot, Third and Osage, between 8 a.m. and 6 p.m. Standard car wash prices have been established in order not to "cut rate" any of the commercial car washing establishments.

The women have been practicing car-washing chores at home in order to give as professional job as possible. They will work in a minimum of teams of two on each automobile, depending upon the number of cars on the lot at a time. The sorority members are looking forward to a number of car owners working in the business district to be their customers, since it will be convenient to leave their automobiles during the day. They are also hopeful that the Saturday shoppers will take advantage of the car wash, in view of the fact that they can shop and have their cars washed at the same time.

Members of the four chapters of Beta Sigma Phi who will participate in "Operation Car Wash" for the benefit of the hospital equipment fund will be:

Mrs. William Dougherty, Mrs. William Atkinson, Mrs. William Angel, Mrs. John Beatty, Mrs. Lacy Belt, Mrs. Otto Tubesing, Mrs. R. E. McCurdy, Mrs. Morris Brown, Mrs. Carl Schrader.

Mrs. Joe Wiesing, Mrs. Vernon Bingaman, Mrs. Ira DeJarnette, Mrs. E. E. Brummett, Jr., Mrs. Robert Phillips, Mrs. Tom Sawyer, Mrs. James N. Bilyeu, Mrs. Harold W. Barrick, Mrs. Bill Padgett, Mrs. Jack Fischer.

Joann Moore, Mrs. Bob Fingland, Mrs. Ward Finnell, Mrs. E. L. McClung, Mrs. William Taylor, Mrs. E. F. Howard, Mrs. H. B. Rymer, Mrs. Charles Thompson.

Mrs. Ben Moore, Ann Pack, Dean Thompson, Mrs. Robert Garrett, Mrs. G. Flores, Mrs. M. E. Landon, Mrs. Nena Jones, Mrs. Dorothy Iuchs.

Mrs. Jane Wadleigh, Mrs. Ralph Parker, Mrs. Rosalie Pressley, Mrs. Joseph Van Horn, Mrs. Bill Fingland, Mildred Sutherlin, Mrs. Don Richardson and Mrs. C. F. Mettler.

Gilmore Talks To Lions Club On Baseball

Russell Gilmore, baseball coach at Smith-Cotton High School, was the speaker at Lions Club Wednesday noon at Bothwell Hotel at which time he talked on "The Sedalia Baseball Program." He brought to the attention of the club the need for a Junior Legion baseball team which would take care of the age group too old for the Babe Ruth League and not old enough for the Ban Johnson League.

Gilmore, who was with the Brooklyn Dodgers organization for five years, told of the Sedalia Baseball Appreciation Day which will be held Thursday, July 12.

Cecil Wyatt, program chairman, presented William Meteja who introduced the speaker.

The meeting was presided over by Robert Cain, president.

John Ellison presented 100 per cent attendance awards for the year to 40 members of the club.

Ed Martin, former Sedalian, who now resides in the state of Washington, was a guest.

Music was by Mrs. Mae Moser.

Bunceton 4-H Club Has Regular Meeting

The Bunceton 4-H Club met June 18 at the high school. Roy Bishop, president, presided and opened the meeting with the group repeating the 4-H pledge.

Patty Vieth gave a demonstration on setting a table. Bobby Brandes told what to do for a black eye and for shocks.

Games were played and refreshments served.

Sliced pineapple may be dipped in a fritter batter and fried in deep fat. Serve sprinkled with confectioners' sugar for a luscious dessert.

Making waffles? Sprinkle batter, after you've poured it onto the irons, with small pecan halves and bake as usual. Super with real maple syrup.

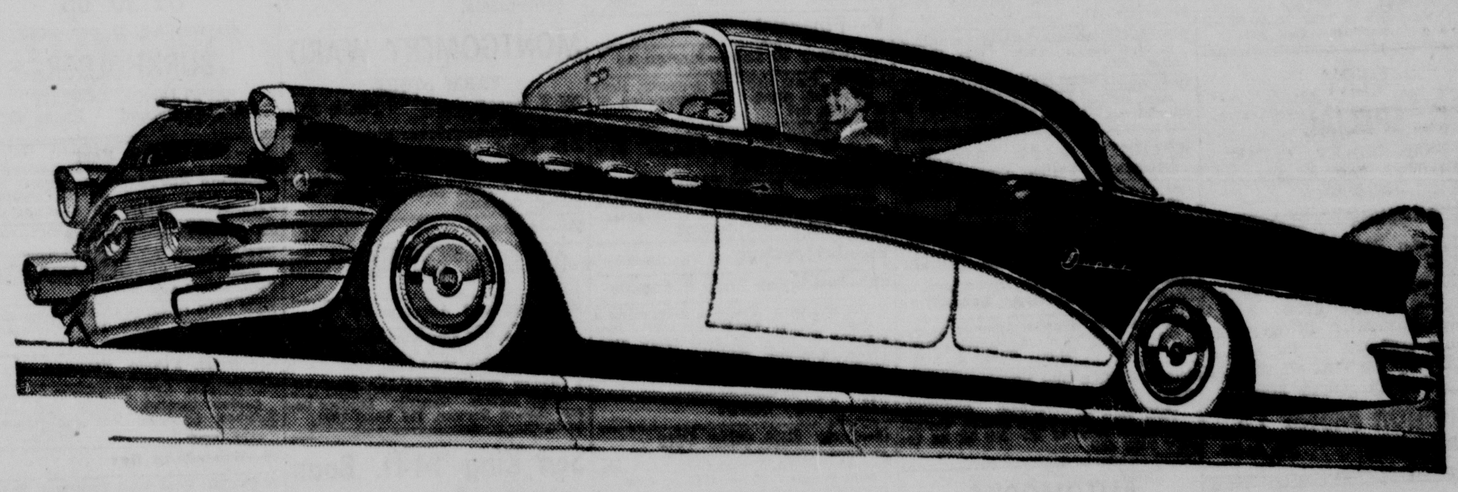
What's New in Getaway?

Try a '56 Buick and See!



Buick SUPER 6-Passenger 4-Door Riviera

YOU'VE probably heard us say a lot, recently, about the 1956 Buick's new Variable Pitch Dynaflow.*

And maybe you've wondered just what that "new" means.

Well, it means a brand-new principle in transmission design that the engineers call "double regeneration." A new way to make whirling oil add to its own velocity. A new way to produce fast torque build-up at only part throttle.

What does it do for you?

It gives you a quick new getaway response right in the first inch of pedal travel—right where you do most of your normal driving—and right where you get better gas mileage every inch of the way.

It gives you more safety-surge breakaway when you floor the pedal and switch the pitch—more electrifying full-power acceleration to pull out of a tight spot.

And it gives you all this with absolute smoothness—whether you're in stop-and-go traffic, or in a highway emergency—because no gears ever shift in Dynaflow.

But if you think this great new getaway is the only reason for Buick's strong position in the Top 3 of America's best sellers—listen.

In every 1956 Buick there's newness from end to end.

New 322-cubic-inch V8 engines. New brakes, new frame, new rear end. A new deep-oil cushioned ride. New "sense of direction" tracking steadiness. New steering linkage and front-end geometry. New handling ease, new quiet, new comfort, new safety. New carburetor "deicing." New exhaust manifolding. New interlocking safety door latches. New Safety-Aim headlamps. New features everywhere you look—including new styling and beauty inside and out.

What it all adds up to is the Best Buick Yet, by far. And we cordially invite you to come see and sample all the new thrills a '56 Buick has in store for you.

You'll find them packaged in a price that makes any model you choose your smartest buy yet. Can you make it this week?

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflow is the only Dynaflow Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

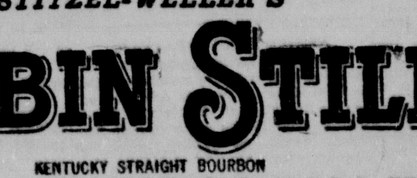
How to shop for your WHISKEY as carefully as for your CAR



. . . ask these 5 questions:

1. WHO MADE IT? You are entitled to know whom to hold responsible for quality. All our whiskey is labeled "Distilled and Bottled by . . ." Every drop comes from our family-owned distillery.

2. WHAT'S THE MAKER'S REPUTATION? If you can see who he is ask anyone in the business about it. We invite you to ask our competitors' opinion of us and the quality of everything we make.

3. WHAT KIND? Straight, Canadian or Blend? We have never made—and never will—anything but straight Kentucky Sour Mash Bourbon. Costs us more, but it puts the flavor in naturally.

4. WHY THE PRICE YOU ASK? Some prices seem low until you fully understand the values in this business. Our prices are low—considering all you get.

5. WHAT'S THE PROOF? CABIN STILL is bottled at an exact proof which is the balance in our whiskey between "horsepower" and flavor.

Have a chat with your friend the retailer about the straight facts in this whiskey business. More often than not, he'll tell you to buy CABIN STILL—after you have tried it, you'll be glad you did, and thank him for his tip.

Changes From Nursing To Farming, Keeps House, Too

FARMER'S WIFE IS THE FARMER: Mrs. George Wedel and children, George Wedel, Jr., James and William.

DEWITT, Mich — (NEA) — In the spring of 1954, George and Gladys Wedel had to make the most difficult decision of their lives. What they decided turned Mrs. Wedel into a top-notch farmer.

Both had been brought up on farms. Although Wedel had a full-time job in a DeWitt factory, they also had been making a success of a 130-acre farm since 1942.

At the end of his workday, when other farmers were putting their tractors away for the day, Wedel was getting his out of the shed to plow or cultivate the corn. Someday they hoped to have the farm built up to the point where Wedel could quit his factory job and be a full-time farmer.

It was a small operation, but it had promise. A Cat tractor and two wheel tractors made it possible to raise 30 acres of corn, 15 acres of oats, 25 acres of hay each year. They had 34 head of polled Shorthorns and 35 Hampshire hogs.

More important, their three sons, George, Jr., 11; Billy, 8, and Jimmy, 5, were growing up in their parents' farm footsteps.

Then in January, 1954, Wedel suffered a stroke which left him incapable of any work. In the early days of his illness, Mrs. Wedel carried on by feeding the stock along with her household duties. But the painful problem of what to do with the farm they all loved hung over their heads — until Mrs. Wedel made her own decision.

"I think I can run the farm, George," she said. "I can operate the tractors and all the other equipment, and the boys are getting bigger so they can help, too. You can tell me what to plant and when."

When spring came, Gladys, who had been a registered nurse, became the farmer. Today she is wife, mother and farm manager rolled into one. Wedel, still incapable even of walking more than a short distance, is a valuable consultant. They employ no extra help.

She has done all the field work —plowing up to 50 acres annually, disking, planting. Usually, too, she has baled 65 tons of hay and field cropped more for the silo.

There is a homily about "A man's work is from sun to sun, but a woman's work is never done." Certainly this is true of Gladys Wedel.

Once her farm work is finished there is housework for the late hours of the evening. Yet she still finds time to belong to Trinity Lutheran Church in Lansing and help George, Jr., with his Cub Scout work.

Bright, clean-cut lads, the boys are of increasing help to Gladys. Like most rural youths, George and Bill belong to the 4-H Club. George's project this year is a purebred Jersey calf which he has named Delwed Jane.

One of the family's newest acquisitions is a purebred Polled Shorthorn bull, Juggler Prince Royal, purchased in 1954 at the Parade of Stars sale in Lebanon, Ind. The bull is a son of an International Champion.

Theater Rodeo

DETROIT (AP)—Four traffic policemen were hastily called on for rodeo duty when Sadie, a normally placid mare, stampeded at the Norwest Theater.

Sadie was being led down the theater aisle to publicize a film. But the slippery floor and the yelling youngsters proved too much. Both Sadie and the children were on the verge of panic before the police arrived for the roundup.

Election Photo Finish

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP)—The race between William Freeman and Paul Mesa for Monroe county supervisor of registration was not decided until the last vote was counted.

The machine count showed Freeman had 3,184 votes and Mesa 3,182.

Mesa received 147 absentee votes and Freeman 146, giving Freeman the office, 3,330 to 3,329.

OSCEOLA, Neb. (AP) — Last September Dr. Charles W. Jeffrey, Rawlins, Wyo. physician and a native of Osceola, bought $200,000 worth of bonds sold to finance a new school here. When Dr. Jeffrey returned to attend a high school alumni banquet he announced he will cancel the last 14 years of the bond issue, a move that amounts to a $140,000 gift to the school district.

Tells Importance of Industry—

Optimist Club Speaker Says Sedalia Must Back Chamber

Sedalia must be sold at community level and the people must back up the Chamber of Commerce if they want the town to grow, Lislie Jeffrey, industrial director of the Missouri Division of Resources and Development told members of the Optimist Club at the noon meeting of that organization Tuesday at Bothwell Hotel.

No matter how good a man you have as manager of your Chamber of Commerce or how good a board of directors you might have, Jeffrey said, unless the people of the town are behind them you're wasting your money. Everybody in the town should be able to tell all about it and sell it wherever they go.

Missouri, the speaker said, was late in getting on the bandwagon advertising the state and even now people often seem ashamed to say they are from Missouri or the community in Missouri from which they are from. There is no reason why Missourians should not be proud of their state. If you apologize for your state or your community you are a poor salesman, he said. If you don't sell your community you are hurting it.

Communities, Jeffrey pointed out, that organize at a local level get back all that they put into it.

Last year $370,000,000 in tourist travel was spent in Missouri. Fishing is about fourth down the list in attractions that tourists enjoy most in Missouri. The principal things they like about the state, he said, are the people and the scenery.

In industry he stated the majority of the industrial development goes to the St. Louis and Kansas City areas, there is quite a little in the southwest and southeast section but little in the central and northern sections. He urged that communities like Sedalia go after the small industries in the Kansas City and St. Louis areas, don't try to get big industries from the east that would disrupt the entire community.

Jeffrey made it plain that communities like Sedalia grow from constant work of trying to bring new small industries in, but it takes everybody watching, working, talking to keep them coming and every other community in the state is trying for the same industries.

All urban communities are growing, these are communities of 25,000 and more, because the rural people are going to town. The reason is that it costs so much now to operate a farm. You can't start farming today with a team of horses and a plow, you must have modern machinery and it takes about $30,000 to go into farming. A farm family is in about the $60,000 bracket before it needs any help on the farm, so that has caused the loss of population in the better farming areas, of which Pettis County is one. The churches and schools can't survive because the people aren't there and there must be consolidation. The rural people move into urban areas, Jeffrey said, and there must be sewers, water supplies, schools and other things. There must be bonds voted for these things and jobs provided for the people.

When Sedalia decides it wants something for the community bad enough they'll get it, but it takes public relations of the community and its people. A bond issue comes up, Jeffrey explained, and nobody takes time to explain it to the people. He stated it is like in a backwoods community where the old man said: "We'ens agin what we're not up on."

Spread the good points of your community, he urged. Sedalia is growing but it should grow faster, the speaker said. Everybody is a potential member of your community. If you can hold a tourist overnight it means about $8 spent in the community and if there are three in the car it means $25. Jeffrey closed leaving the thought that it is everybody's job to build a bigger and better community.

The speaker was introduced by Dr. C. J. Blaich.

Charles Hurtt, president, conducted the meeting with invocation given by Harold Barrick. Charles Hanna led the singing with Miss Lillian Fox at the piano.

The outstanding airmen from Whiteman Air Force Base for the month of April were honored at the Tuesday luncheon. They were introduced by Lt. John J. McCardle, information service office, Whiteman Air Force Base, and presented certificates by Charles Hurtt. They were: S-Sgt. William F. Pine, A-1c Robert F. Kleest, S-Sgt. Jesse J. Owens, A-2c John H. Trimble, A-2c Ernest F. Thibault, A-2c Carter A. M. Johnson, A-3c Harold L. Gibson, S-Sgt. Theodore J. Snyder, Jr., A-2c Raymond A. MacKadams, T-Sgt. Lloyd E. Moore, and A-2c Steven C. Smith.

Jimmy Jones was introduced as a guest.

Cheese For Sunday Supper

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Is Sunday supper at your house sometimes a spur-of-the-moment affair? Does the cook go into the kitchen late that lazy afternoon to prepare what she's moved to put on the table for a casual meal?

If you're a wise family planner, you'll have natural cheddar cheese on hand. The cheese makes so many good dishes when it is teamed with everyday ingredients.

Nowadays natural cheddar cheese comes packaged in vacuum sealed transparent wrapping. The plastic bags are shrunk to fit the cheese so no air can get in; this means that the cheese may be safely refrigerated for many weeks.

Here are some spur-of-the-moment cheddar cheese dishes for which you do not need meticulous recipes.

Grilled Cheese Sandwiches—Our favorite way to prepare these is to grill the sandwiches in butter in an iron skillet. A large skillet will take three sandwiches — two whole ones and one cut in half. The first trick in making these sandwiches taste wonderful is to use plenty of butter — 1 tablespoon for each side of each sandwich, if you're feeling extravagant and are not calorie conscious. The second trick is to grill the sandwiches slowly.

Embellish the sandwiches, if you like, by adding whatever is in the refrigerator to the cheese: thin slices of boiled ham, a layer of chutney or sweet pickle relish, strips of dates and sliced walnuts.

Cheese Rabbit — For this make a medium cream sauce with plenty of grated cheese stirred in after the sauce has thickened. The rabbit is delicious served over toast or crisp crackers and topped with tomatoes.

If the tomatoes in the house are fresh, cut them in half crosswise, sprinkle the cut surfaces with salt, pepper and dried crushed basil; then dot with butter or margarine before broiling.

If the tomatoes come out of a can from your pantry shelf, heat them carefully so as not to break them; then drain well with a large slotted kitchen spoon and use these for your topping.

If you have stewed tomatoes on hand, you'll use these of course without further seasoning. If the canned tomatoes are the plain sort, you may add seasonings during the heating: salt, pepper, a dash of sugar, basil.

The juice left from the tomatoes may be refrigerated and added to a soup, a sauce or a gravy.

Cheese Fondue — Do you know this good dish? Along with the cheese, it uses milk, bread, butter or margarine, eggs, salt and dry mustard. Serve the fondue with tomato aspic (it comes in cans) on salad greens. Or serve a fresh salad of sliced tomatoes and cucumbers, lettuce and green onions. Here's the recipe for the fondue:

CHEESE FONDUE

Ingredients: 1 cup milk, 1 cup fresh bread crumbs, 4 ounces (about 1 cup) natural cheddar cheese (chopped), 1 tablespoon butter or margarine, ½ teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon dry mustard, 3 eggs (separated).

Method: Place milk, bread crumbs, cheese, butter, salt and mustard in saucepan. Stir over low heat until cheese is melted and bread crumbs are blended. Remove from heat. Beat yolks until thick and lemon-colored. Slowly but vigorously stir cheese mixture into yolks. Beat egg whites until they stand in soft peaks. Fold into cheese-yolk mixture. Pour into buttered 1-quart baking or souffle dish. Bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven for 30 minutes. Fondue will stand up a little longer if left in the oven with door ajar an additional 10 minutes. Makes four servings.

Okay to Soviet Visits Expected From President

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower is due to approve soon a "positive" policy for exchanges of visits between the United States and Russia.

Officials said the proposed policy statement, now reported agreed on in the administration, would provide for the United States to propose some exchanges with Russia as well as to react to Soviet proposals for visits.

Secretary of State Dulles told a news conference the problem of East-West exchanges "is coming up within the next few days, perhaps, for final decision through the National Security Council and the President, which will help us firm our position."

United States policy has been knotted in controversy, principally among the State, Defense and Justice Departments, for several months. The Justice Department reportedly has not been enthusiastic about having a large number of Soviet visitors.

However, the State Department and some presidential advisers have argued that the United States could not afford to erect an "Iron Curtain" of its own.

Officials said the new policy would provide for "positive action" by the United States on a basis of reciprocal treatment.

Remove Fruit and Berry Stain

Treat fruit and berry stains immediately, if possible; they are hard to remove after they dry. Boiling water (if it does not harm the cloth) or sometimes even warm water will remove most fruit stains. It is better not to use soap, as alkalies set some fruit and berry stains. Use the same methods for removing stains from cooked fruits and berries as from fresh.

Washing in warm soapy water sometimes removes stains from citrus fruits, such as grapefruit and lemon. But if the stain is old or the cloth has been pressed before washing, use one of the bleaches described below. If the acid in citrus fruit changes the color of the cloth, restore it with ammonia water or baking soda.

Cold water and glycerine. For fresh peach, pear, cherry, and plum stains on cotton and linen and for any fruit stain on wool or silk materials (either white or colored), first sponge the stain well with cool water; then work glycerine or a soapless shampoo into the stain, rubbing lightly between the hands. Do not use soap, as soap sets the stain. Let stand several hours, then apply a few drops of vinegar or oxalic acid, allow to remain for a minute or two, then rinse thoroughly in water.

Boiling water. Boiling water removes from cotton and linen most fruit stains except peach, pear, plum and cherry. Never use boiling water on silk or wool. Stretch the stained part over a bowl, fasten it with string, and pour boiling water on it from a teakettle held at a height of three or four feet so that the water strikes the stain with force. Rubbing alternated with the boiling water is also helpful. If a stain remains, squeeze a little lemon juice on it and place in the sun to dry, or use one of the chemical bleaches.

Bleaches. If a stain remains, try the following:

Hydrogen peroxide and sodium perberate. Sponge the hydrogen peroxide-sodium perborate mixture (one teaspoon sodium perborate to one pint peroxide). Rinse thoroughly. If the stain persists, sprinkle powdered sodium perborate on the dampened area and let stand for half an hour. Finally rinse well. Always test for change of color on the inside of a hem or seam before using these bleaches. If the color fades, do not use them, just dampen the stain with water and spread in the sun to bleach.

Cabbage Season

We eat more fresh cabbage per person in America each year than we do any other fresh vegetable with the exception of potatoes.

Look for heads that are solid and heavy for size. Cabbage with fresh green leaves firmly attached to the stem. Cabbage free from bruises, decay and yellowing leaves. One pound cabbage equals seven (½ cup) servings raw or five cooked.

To keep cabbage crisp—Remove any withered leaves and wash and dry the head .Store in a covered container in the refrigerator. To keep for several days, wrap it in wax paper or a damp cloth before storing it.

In general cabbage has an excellent rating as a source of vitamin "C". From ½ cup of raw or cooked cabbage you get about one-third of the vitamin "C" recommendation for one day. The fresher and greener the color, the higher the vitamin "C."

To get the maximum in flavor and nutritive value, cabbage should be treated with care during cutting, cooking and serving.

1. Slice cabbage with a sharp knife, since vitamin "C" is lost if cabbage is bruised.

2. Cut cabbage should be kept covered in the refrigerator until ready for use.

3. Add dressing to cabbage just before serving.

4 .Cook in small amount of salted water for short time. Five to eight minutes, if cabbage is shredded and 10 to 12 minutes for wedges.

5. Panned cabbage should be cooked only until tender, but crisp.

Raw cabbage combines well with apples, shredded carrots, pineapple, marshmallows, green peppers, onions, radishes and sliced cucumbers.

A cabbage salad bowl with nippy sour cream dressing:

½ cup sour cream
1 tablespoon sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
Pepper
1 tablespoon lemon juice
2 tablespoons vinegar

Mix sugar salt and, pepper in a bowl—add the lemon juice and vinegar; then stir gradually into sour cream. Whipped cream, sweet, or evaporated milk may be used instead of commercial sour cream.

Junking the Alphabet

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP)—The alphabet is as outdated as a horse car, says Edward Allen Loomis who has designed a new semaphore alphabet that he claims "anyone with intelligence can learn in 10 minutes."

The LMS (Loomis Modern System) uses lines instead of letters The LMS characters look like a cross between hieroglyphics and semaphore signal positions.

"It copies no nation's alphabet and is easily written and understood by all peoples," he said.

LONGVIEW, Tex. (AP)—A helicopter pilot gave a local barbecue stand some good advertising.

"I smelled that hickory smoke up there and just couldn't resist it," the pilot said as he climbed

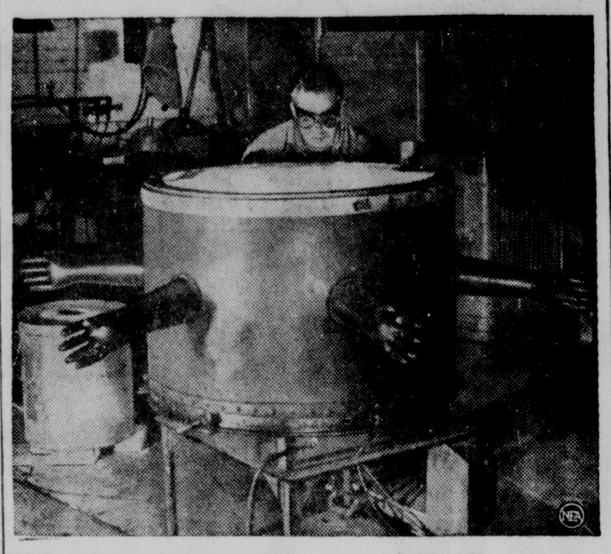
Atomic Age, Missiles Bring Boom to Rare Metals Market



MAN-MADE OCTOPUS is this airtight chamber filled with helium gas in which titanium is welded. Welder can work from any angle by means of the rubber "arms."

By DOUGLAS LARSEN
NEA Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Fortune hunters and prospectors, forget the "gold in them thar hills."

Adjust your divining rods for such metals as thulium or erbium and keep pace with cost of living.

Gold will get you only $35 an ounce while thulium oxide will bring you more than $3,920 an ounce and erbium $1,120 an ounce. A whole range of rare metals such as these will also bring you big sums if you find rich deposits.

The exacting needs of guided missiles, atomic energy and new processes of modern industry have created demands for them. To get ahead today a metal must have more versatile characteristics than the mere toughness of steel, or the electrical conductivity of copper.

Zirconium, which resembles steel is one of the biggest success stories in metal today, for example. More uses are being found for it every day.

Because of zirconium's non-corrosive properties, its resistance to heat and a low absorption of neutrons it's ideal for use in atomic reactors. It's also used to line interiors of jet engines.

Zirconium phosphate is used to treat stomach ulcers and zirconium carbonate is used in poison ivy ointment and as an antiperspirant. Pure zirconium is valuable in surgery. Body fluids will not corrode it and human tissue grows to it without decay or deterioration. It's replacing other metals for use in bone screws and cranial plates.

Mostly as a result of Atomic Energy Commission purchases of zirconium, production will rise from a current annual output of 325,000 pounds per year to an expected four and a half million pounds in a few years. Beach sands are the principal sources of the metal.

A metal called selenium, a crystalline, graying solid with a semi-metallic luster, is now rated the most strategic of all metals. Uncle Sam is stockpiling every pound he can get.

It has special properties of electrical conductivity which makes it invaluable in the manufacture of electronic equipment. It changes alternating current to direct current.

A small amount of selenium in a TV set eliminates the need for one-half pound of copper and seven and one-half pounds of steel. There's great demand for it in guided missile electronic circuits.

It's used as a pigment for red and orange paints. It's added to glass for auto tail lights.

Increased demand for selenium has boosted the price from $1.75 per pound in 1947 to $6 per pound today. Most sources of the ore are outside the U. S. Prospectors are seeking deposits in the U. S.

Research by the large steel companies — in addition to atomic studies — has been mostly responsible for isolating these metals and finding the new, special uses for them.

Actually their presence in the earth's crust has been known for many years by scientists. In most cases the difficulty has been finding an economical process for purifying them. Prospecting for richer deposits of the ore in which they are found is going on in earnest all over the world.

But as demand for their special properties has increased, production costs have been lowered.

Security surrounds the production and use of many of these previously unheard of metals. For example, a metal known as yttrium is known to be vital to the development of atomic aircraft engines.

Three rare new metals, gatalinium, sumarium and europium are known to have excellent properties for trapping neutrons, valuable in atomic reactor components.

Among the metals which have almost emerged from the "rare" category during the past 10 years are thorium, titanium, germanium and beryllium. Most of them are now widely used in aircraft construction, guided missiles and in atomic work.

Rock 'n Roll Gets Boost

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The much-maligned rock and roll music finds another booster from an unexpected source—balladeer turned actor Burl Ives.

Why, the guy even likes Elvis Presley!

Big Burl is no small potatoes as a musical observer. More than anyone else, he brought the American ballad back to immense popularity, and his knowledge of our country's music goes back hundreds of years. That's one of the reasons he likes R&R.

"There's nothing new about it," he explained as he reclined in his Garden of Allah villa. "Why, it's the same kind of music I was dancing to when I was in college in 1927. In later years, the stuff was put out under the title of 'race records.'

"I've got about 50 of the new rock and roll records and I play them all the time. A lot of people are knocking this Elvis Presley guy. Why, I think he's all right. Of course, I just know him from his records; I've never seen the bumps and grinds he does.

"I've got a theory about why rock and roll is so popular with the young kids. For years, the top vocalists have been making records with musical backgrounds that have gotten more and more refined. You listen to a Dinah Shore or a Bing Crosby and you hear an accompaniment that is darn near perfect.

"The human quality had gone out of the records, and therefore the young people lost identification with them. When rock and roll came along, it appealed to them because it wasn't perfect. The music was noisy and loud and often off-key, especially with the saxophones.

"The singers were also unpolished, and they often stood back from the microphone and shouted, instead of murmuring into it.

"And there was another thing about the records—usually they had a beat, and a good, solid one."

Weight Reduction?

OMAHA (AP)—A clerk in the Omaha Post Office weighed a letter for a woman patron handed it back with the comment it was too heavy and would need another stamp.

"Well," shrugged the woman, "how will putting another stamp on it make it lighter?"

Sometimes the go-getter seems to be very sorry that he got her.

Steve Allen Comments On Elvis Presley

Editor's Note—Our TV columnist wrote a letter last week to Steve Allen in which he had the temerity to suggest that Elvis Presley, idol of the rock 'n' roll set, didn't belong on the Allen show. Allen has written back, suggesting in a nice way that our man doesn't know what he's talking about.

By STEVE ALLEN

NEW YOR (AP)—An open letter to Charles Mercer:

"Dear Charlie:

"I read your column about Elvis Presley with great interest and am happy to have the opportunity to answer your questions. Your basic question, of course, boils down to: 'Why on earth is Allen booking Presley after the Berle incident?'

"To start at the beginning I DIDN'T book Elvis after the Berle incident. He was set for my new Sunday evening program several weeks before he appeared on Milton's show and I have therefore a legal commitment to employ him on Sunday, July 1.

"Secondly, the anti-Presley arguments I've been hearing seem a bit illogical. You see, he has made many TV appearances before the Berle show, all without arousing any hue or cry, so there can be no firm basis for keeping him off TV altogether. The heart of the matter is that he thoughtlessly indulged in certain dance movements on his last TV appearance which a number of people thought objectionable.

"So the thing to do, it seems to me, is to allow him to appear on television any time he wants, but to make certain that the conducts himself in a gentlemanly manner, and that is precisely my intention. We are going to present Elvis in what you might call his first comeback. We are going to present the 'new' Elvis Presley.

"There is another line of argument, of course, about Elvis and I note that you included it in your open letter. It is, to put it bluntly, that Elvis has, as you phrase it, "No talent." Well, sir, if we ever started keeping people out of work because they had little or no talent TV would probably have to fold up within two weeks. Also, who is to say that Elvis has no talent? You say it, and a few million other people might be found to support you, but I am sure that additional millions will rise to his defense and say that he has oodles of talent.

"What is talent, anyway? I've heard people say that Arthur Godfrey has no talent. . . . He just sits there and talks . . . (but) his talk reveals an outstanding personal magnetism and whether you call it talent, charm, personality, or 'it,' it's commercial. I think Godfrey is probably the healthiest thing that ever happened to radio or TV. . . . And don't think I'm getting off the subject. I've just seen the screen test Elvis has made for Hal Wallis and I predict that he has a big future in pictures if Wallis will cast him wisely.

"One's pronouncements about talent add up, after all, to matters of taste. When I was a teenager all the adults I knew told me Frank Sinatra had no talent. Later I've heard it said that Vaughn Monroe had no talent, that Liberace has no talent. I'm sure the point is obvious. . . .

"Your suggestion about going to Africa is a good one since rhythm-and-blues or rock-and-roll is derived from early Negro forms of musical expression. In closing let me assure audiences again that they will not be offended by Elvis on any program over which I have control. We'll show you a new side of the boy. He knows he made a mistake with the Milton Berle business and I think he's smart enough not to do it again. We all make mistakes, don't we? And we all like to be forgiven.

"Sincerely,
"Steve Allen"

Picnics Break Tension Of Modern Day Living

Picnics are fun because they break the routine of every day living and help all members of the family relax and enjoy the outdoors. With the tension that is prevalent in many lives these days, more and more folks are going to a shady glen, or to the lake where the gentle breezes of summer help calm nerves and relax muscles.

The food to eat on an outdoor excursion is as important nutritionally as the meal eaten at home. It can be simple, easy to prepare, but in planning such a meal, plan one that is well balanced. Sandwiches are one of the most popular foods at a picnic. They are nutritious too, because protein foods such as cheese, meat, fish and poultry can be served so admirably between slices of buttered bread, buns or rolls.

Cheese Combinations

Cheese lends itself well to picnic sandwiches. It can be used in combination with beef for a delicious cheeseburger which can be cooked at the picnic spot, or it can be used with vegetables, relishes or a variety of other foods. For a tasty sandwich that can be made ahead of eating time, ham and cheese on buttered buns is very popular. Cheese contains the fine nutrients of milk and its high quality protein furnishes the "stick to the ribs" quality.

Hearty Picnic Sandwiches

12 hamburger buns
Softened butter
12 lettuce leaves
12 slices large bologna or ham
12 slices Swiss cheese
Prepared mustard
Piccalilli

Split buns and spread both halves with softened butter. On lower half of each bun place a leaf of lettuce, then a slice bologna, and finally a slice of cheese. Sprinkle a teaspoon of piccalilli over the cheese. Spread top half of bun with mustard and place over lower half. Wrap each bun sandwich separately in waxed paper and pack in picnic basket, or take buttered buns and make sandwiches at picnic site. Makes 12 sandwiches.

Cheeseburgers Piquant

1½ pounds ground beef
3 tablespoons milk
¾ teaspoon salt
Dash pepper
6 slices American cheese
6 buttered buns

Mix ground beef with milk, salt, pepper. Shape into six patties about 3 inches in diameter. For outdoor cooking, place patties on grill 5 to 7 inches above bed of live coals. Broil until well done on under side. When about half done, top each patty with a tablespoon of piquant sauce (recipe below), and a slice of cheese. Continue broiling until cheese is melted and patties are well browned. Cheeseburgers may also be fried in a skillet using 4 tablespoons butter. Serve on buns. Makes 6 cheeseburgers.

Piquant Sauce

¼ cup chili sauce
2 tablespoons pickle relish
1½ teaspoons prepared mustard

Combine all ingredients and mix well.

Will Present Naval Destroyer in Model

A 44-foot model of a Navy destroyer will tour and be on exhibition in the Sedalia-Jefferson City area from July 3-6. It will visit the following cities and towns on date indicated: Columbia, 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. on the 4th of July; Boonville, 2 p.m. to 8 p.m. on the 4th; Sedalia, 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. July 5th; California, 4 p. m. to 8 p.m. the 5th; and Jefferson City, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on the 6th of July.

The destroyer model, which is mounted on a 1½-ton truck chasis, is the property of the Fort Wayne, Ind., Navy Club, and is commonly known as the "Navy Club Ship 48." It is equipped with siren, bell and smoke stack.

Tumble weeds were first introduced into the United States in 1875 shipments of Russian flax seed.

Tokens for Bus Drivers

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. (AP)—Johnny Jones, a bus driver, collects more bus tokens when he's out of the driver's seat than when at the wheel. Jones is a vecturist.

Vecturists collect bus tokens for a hobby. They also collect any other kind of transit token they can get their hands on.

He has tokens from each state and every U.S. possession. They are all sizes and shapes: stars, diamonds, crescents, ovals, and some that defy geometrical classification.

There are tokens used all the way back in the mid-1800s. But the one that really is his favorite comes from a small California town. It dangles from the end of his watch chain. The token has a big "J" in the center and the legend around the initial reads: "Jones Transportation Company."

Well, bus drivers can dream, too.

There's No Hidin' Place

CHARLOTTE, N. C. (AP) — Other motorists made a metal punching bag out of the automobile owned by Claude William Wiley, 56.

Wiley told police his car was hit in the rear and on one side as he allegedly made a U-turn on a busy street here.

He then parked the damaged auto to wait for a wrecker. It came, though not the way he'd ordered it. Another car ran into his parked vehicle and left it a total loss.

National Emergency

SAGINAW, Mich. (AP) — To cover football games at Millington High School, sports writers will have to climb an 18-foot ladder to the press box. The press box was raised that high so it can double as a Civil Defense Ground Observer Corps lookout post.

EASY RULES FOR WINNING

1. PRINT clearly in the puzzle the letters you think will form words that best fit the clues. After you have filled in the puzzle, PRINT your name and address clearly on the entry blank. Be sure also to print the first letter of your last name in the box provided. Entries must be postmarked no later than midnight August 6, 1956, and must be received no later than August 20, 1956. Mail all entries to: "The Trickster", Box 91, Cincinnati 1, Ohio.

2. You may submit as many solutions to this puzzle as you desire, using official entry blanks. With each entry send a boxtop from any size bottle of JOY (if you have one) or a facsimile copied from any source—OR enclose a separate sheet of paper on which you have copied the number from the bottom of any size JOY can, which now may be seen at your store. In this ad are pictures of the New Milder JOY bottle carton and can.

3. Carefully study the clues before writing your answers. The right solution requires the most appropriate and suitable word in each blank. The judges will determine which word is the most appropriate and suitable to the clue in each case. The judges have been appointed by Procter & Gamble to consider all entries and select the prize winner. Decisions of the judges are final.

4. Procter & Gamble will pay $32,000 for the right solution to this puzzle. If no correct solution is received, the most nearly correct solution, based on the number of correct words, will be the winner. One prize will be awarded.

In the event of ties, a separate "Trickster" puzzle and sentence for completion, "Joy makes dishwashing almost nice because . . . (25 words or less) . . .", will be mailed to those who have tied. No JOY boxtop or can number will be required with a tie-breaking entry. Entries in the tie-breaking contest will be judged on the basis of the puzzle. In the event of ties, the prize money will be paid to the tying entrant whose sentence for completion is judged most apt, original and sincere.

5. Entries limited to residents of the continental United States (including Alaska) and Hawaii, except employees of Procter & Gamble, its advertising agencies, and their families. Government regulations apply.

6. All entries become unqualifiedly the property of Procter & Gamble for any and all purposes. No entries returned. Except for incidental, uncompensated help from family and friends, entries must be wholly the work of the person in whose name the entry is submitted, and will be disqualified for outside professional or compensated help. Mechanically reproduced facsimiles or numbers are ineligible. The winner or tying entrants will be notified by mail about 8 weeks after all entries are received.

RANGETOP DISH—Sardines with cheese sauce.

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

What are your nominations for warm-weather main dishes that may be cooked on top of the range?

One of ours is Sardine Rabbit. The sauce may be made speedily at the last minute and the sardines can be ready and waiting on your pantry shelf.

SEASONING TIP

In the following cheese sauce recipe we give you only the basic seasonings. Add to them to suit your whim. Use prepared or dry mustard if you like. Stir in a little chili sauce or catchup. Try a touch of Worcestershire, a dash of curry powder or cayenne pepper, a pinch of celery salt, a suspicion of sugar. Or jumble a number of these seasonings together in the sauce.

GARNISH TIP

Garnish the Sardine Rabbit, too, as your fancy dictates. The green of parsley or chives looks pretty with the golden sauce. A sprinkling of paprika adds inviting color. Sliced pimiento - stuffed olives look attractive and add tang.

HOW TO SERVE

Rabbit is traditionally served with toast or crackers and we are all for staying with classic cuisine. But we beg you to see that the toast and crackers are really crisp. Crackers have a way of getting soggy in warm weather, so heat them under the broiler or in your toaster before serving.

With the Sardine Rabbit you might like to serve a crisp salad for texture contrast. For dessert, cantaloupe halves filled with fresh berries would be delectable.

AMERICAN SARDINE RABBIT

Ingredients: 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, 2 tablespoons flour, 2 cups milk, 1½ cups (firmly packed) sharp cheddar cheese, salt, pepper, Maine sardines, triangles of crisp toast.

Method: In a heavy saucepan over low heat melt butter; blend in flour. Add milk at once; cook and stir constantly until bubbly and thickened. Add cheese and stir over very low heat just until cheese melts. Add salt and pepper to taste. Arrange drained sardines on toast and pour the cheese sauce over them.

Kidnapped?

YUMA, Ariz. (AP) — FBI agents jumped on the trail — but not too avidly—when this note was thrown from the window of a car:

"I am being kidnapt (cq) in a blue 53 Buick bearing Iowa Licens (cq) 1716107."

They found the car and ordered a handwriting test on the family inside. Confronted with the evidence, a 12-year-old boy confessed. He was released to his parents—in very poor standing.

No Privaiy

AIKEN, S.C. (AP)—It's getting so even a grubworm can't have any privacy.

John Hatcher, U.S. Forest Service specialist assigned to the Savannah River atomic materials plant near here, reported he has a team studying the living habits of grubworms with a Geiger counter.

Mace Is Back

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. (AP) — The College of William and Mary—second oldest in America — has its ceremonial mace back. The return, after six months, was as mysterious as its disappearance from an unlocked display case. It was just there one morning in the foyer of Marshall - Wythe Hall and really polished, too.

Mrs. George Dowdy is counselor.

ELDEST STATESMAN—Sen. Theodore F. Green (D-RI), 88, dean of the Senate in point of years, receives crown and scepter from Sen. George D. Aiken (R-Vt) in Capital ceremonies honoring his longevity. He was 88 years, 8 months and 15 days old on June 17, at which time he eclipsed the record of the late Sen. Justin Smith Morrill (Vt) who died in office in 1898.

Cool Quickies for Summer Days Blend Dairy Products and Waffles--Good, Too!

Is anyone too old to remember with longing, those good crisp ice cream waffle sandwiches—everybody's favorite at the fairs when we were kids? Today's version, a slice of your favorite ice cream between two waffle squares, pleases the whole family.

Take that handy package of pancake mix from the cupboard shelf and in minutes stir up a batch of tantalizingly good waffles for these modern ice cream sandwiches.

GOLDEN WAFFLES

2 cups pancake mix
2 eggs
2 cups milk
¼ cup melted butter

Place all ingredients in a bowl and beat with a rotary beater until fairly smooth. Bake on a hot waffle iron until steaming stops. Serve at once.

For "special" desserts, here's a syrup topping that will pass all taste tests with flying colors. It is Old South Butterscotch Sauce, which is easy on your sugar supply and can be made in a jiffy, too.

OLD SOUTH BUTTERSCOTCH SAUCE

Yields 1 pint

¾ cup dark corn syrup
1 cup brown sugar, firmly packed
¼ cup butter
¼ teaspoon salt
2/3 cup evaporated milk, cream

Boil together corn syrup, brown sugar, butter and salt until consistency of heavy syrup. Cool; add evaporated milk or cream before serving.

Waffles with melted butter and hot syrup are scrumptious for any time of the year. Another very satisfying main dish or dessert is waffles with fresh fruit during the season when there are plump, juicy berries, ripe flavorful peaches, or luscious, succulent pears. Just heap the fresh sweetened fruit or a combination of whipped cream and fresh fruit over piping hot waffles and deserve the chorus of delighted "Oh's!" and "Ah's!" which this easy treat will bring.

Make Picnics Easy For All; Prepare Them the Easy Way

Whether you hold them in your own backyard or in front of the fireplace in the living or recreation room, picnics can be year round fun.

Choose a menu for which you can make up most dishes in the morning or even the day before. Then just before picnic time pop food into the oven.

Here's an easy menu — ham and cheese stuffed rolls, hot Boston baked or chili beans, buttered corn on the cob (fresh or frozen), relishes, "black cows" for dessert.

Cheese and Ham Stuffed Rolls

6 to 8 frankfurter rolls
1 cup ground cooked ham or canned luncheon meat
¼ cup chopped sweet cucumber pickles or sliced stuffed green olives
1 tablespoon grated onion
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
6 tablespoons mayonnaise or cooked salad dressing
2 cups shredded American Cheddar Cheese

Combine ham with all the other ingredients. Season to taste with salt and pepper. Cut slice off top of each roll, scoop out center (dry for crumbs). Spread with softened butter.

Fill hollow of each roll with mixture. Replace top. Wrap each in aluminum foil, parchment or heavy waxed paper. Refrigerate until needed.

To heat: If rolls are in foil and cooking is being done outside, place on rack over very low coals until roll is heated through. Or with any wrap, place in heated Dutch oven long enough to heat through. Keep over low coals or other heat. Of course, these wrapped rolls may be placed in a moderately slow oven (325 degrees) for heating. Serve in wrappers.

Some Sparks for the Fourth of July Menu

SPARKLERS AND PIN WHEELS to celebrate the Fourth.

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Holiday entertaining will benefit from skewer cookery. You can get delectable tidbits ready in advance, then cooks and their helpers can thread them on skewers and charcoal-broil them outside or, if necessary in the kitchen range.

Beef and lamb are usually used for skewer cookery along with appropriate vegetables. But how about something different? Here's a recipe for skewering ham with a sweet-and-sour marinade. To make life easy, use a fully-cooked ham from your market or a canned ham.

With the ham a salad of red-and-white cabbage tastes good. Call the skewered ham Sparklers and the slaw a Pin-wheel salad in honor of July Fourth.

Young and old will probably want plenty of bottled soft drinks around. Choose various flavors of carbonated beverages and put them in a tub of crushed ice to keep them cold. Small fry will enjoy decorating the tub with patriotic insignia.

HAM SPARKLERS

Ingredients: 2 whole cloves, ½ teaspoon cinnamon, ½ teaspoon dry mustard, ½ teaspoon ginger, 1 tablespoon dark brown sugar, 1-3 cup wine vinegar, 2-3 cup pineapple juice, 1¼ pounds fully-cooked boneless ham, 2 green peppers, 8 medium-sized mushrooms, 4 small parboiled onions.

Method: Mix together the cloves, cinnamon, mustard, ginger, brown sugar, vinegar and pineapple juice. Cut ham into 2-inch cubes. Pour seasoned mixture over ham. Refrigerate for several hours. Meanwhile remove tops from green peppers and cut each in half. Remove membrane and seeds. Cut each half into three sections. Wash and dry mushrooms and if stems are long cut them about even with the caps. When ready to cook, drain ham; save marinating liquid. Alternate green-pepper pieces, ham and mushrooms on skewers. Insert an onion on end of each skewer. Broil over charcoal or in broiler of range until hot through, turning a few times. Brush with marinating liquid during broiling. Makes 4 servings. Recipe may be doubled.

PIN-WHEEL SALAD

Ingredients: 3 tablespoons cider vinegar, ½ teaspoon salt, ⅛ teaspoon pepper, ¼ teaspoon dried crushed oregano, ¼ teaspoon dry mustard, ¼ teaspoon paprika, ¼ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, 1-3 cup salad oil, 2 tablespoons minced parsley, 2 tablespoons minced onion, 2½ cups shredded red cabbage, 2½ cups shredded white cabbage, 2 tomatoes.

Method: Mix together the vinegar, salt, pepper, oregano, mustard, paprika and Worcestershire sauce. Mix well with oil, parsley and onion. Toss red and white cabbage together. Add salad dressing to cabbage and toss gently until all cabbage is coated with dressing. Turn into salad bowl. Peel and stem tomatoes. Cut in halves; cut each half into 4 wedges. Arrange tomato wedges in pin-wheel design in center of slaw. Makes 6 servings.

Note: To peel tomatoes place in boiling water for about 1 minute; cut out stem ends; pull off skin with small sharp knife. Rinse a tomato with cold water and insert a fork in the stem end; turn slowly over a gas flame until skin bursts in a few places; cut out stem end and pull off skin with small sharp knife.

Picnics Make Changes

Let's take a look at picnics. My! How they have changed. Once upon a time picnics consisted of a hamper of cold foods and they were rigidly fixed for high noon by the decree of some ancient picnicker.

Modern folks have changed the picnic picture . . . they elevate their victuals above the ground at any hour that suits them best, and they are liable to include at least one hot dish in each outdoor meal. They are discovering that brunch-picnics, arranged for an unexpected hour are spelled with a sense of excitement, and provide an attractive way to start an energetic holiday during the cool of the day.

Start the early picnic with a chill-chaser, for right now the temperature is liable to be affected by the coolness left by night. Hot soup for brunch makes for good nutrition, too, when the late meal of the day might be straight out of the refrigerator or the deep freeze.

DELIGHTFUL DEVILLED EGGS

6 hard-cooked eggs
2 tablsepoons rich brown prepared mustard
2½ tablespoons mayonnaise
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
Paprika

Shell eggs and cut in half. Remove yolks and mash. Blend in mustard, mayonnaise, salt and pepper. Refill whites with mixture and sprinkle with paprika. Makes 12 halves.

Grated onion or chives, pickle relish, a dash of curry, a dash of celery salt, finely chopped ripe olives, or finely chopped parsley may be added to this basic recipe in quantity to suit your taste.

Johnny Gets a Badge---

Scientists Consider Means To Prevent Radiation Harm

Editor's Note — Concerned about the real and potential effects of radiation in an accelerating atomic age, scientists urgently are searching for ways and means to insure maximum safety for present and future generations. Here, in the first of a two-part report, is one proposal for doing so with an explanation of how it would work.

By FRANK CAREY
AP Science Reporter

WASHINGTON, (AP) — The time is a year — or maybe it's 1961 . . .

A little boy is about to step aboard the school bus. His mother comes to the door and cries:

"Johnny Jones, march right back into this house and put on your radiation badge!"

Johnny, grinning sheepishly, hurries back and takes a little square badge containing a piece of photographic film. He pins it on his blouse and scoots back to the school bus.

All the other kids in the bus are wearing the little badges, just like every other person in the United States, young and old.

Such a scene is entirely likely as a result of a recommendation made by the National Academy of Sciences recently in its report on the real and potential hazards of radiation.

The report said radiation — at least in relatively large amounts — could cause "premature aging." Also, that in sufficient quantities and under certain conditions it can cause such things as cancer.

And it said that ANY amount of radiation, however small, if received in a person's sex glands, produces genetic changes that might result in mentally or physically defective children in some future generation.

The idea is: the more radiation, the more "mutations;" and the more people exposed, the greater the extent of damage to future generations, even though widespread effects on the world's population as a whole—as distinguished from many individual defectives—might not be recognizeable for centuries.

The academy made this recommendation:

That limits be set on the average amount of radiation Americans can receive in their reproductive glands — especially from conception to age 30, the critical period for reproduction of the species.

And, as an aid in keeping tabs on how much radiation each person is receiving — whether from atomic bomb tests, nuclear power plants, medical Xrays, cosmic rays in the atmosphere, or naturally radioactive materials in the ground — the academy recommended:

That some kind of a national system be set up to keep a record of every American's cumulative exposure to radiation — from the cradle to the grave.

One of the key scientists involved in the academy's report—Dr. Warren Weaver of the Rockefeller Foundation— sees the possibility of everyone wearing a "little film clip" which would record exposure to the invisible rays of this atomic age. Such badges could be turned in to a central office every month or so for a listing of each person's radiation dose.

Next: Radiation Distribution.

Project Group Meets With Carl Raines

The electricity II group of the Longwood Neighbors 4-H Club met June 19 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Raines. During the meeting a lesson on soldering principles and equipment involved was given. There was a discussion of the progress made in requirements.

Those attending were Robert and Raymond Brown, Robert Leftwich, Bill Stephens, Buddy Anderson, Danny Smith and Barry Ellis.

Refreshments were served to members and guests at the close of a recreation period after the meeting.

The New York metropolitan area has 12,300,000 people.

Hot Hive

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — State and county officers went to a nearby wooded area to destroy a 900-gallon, illegal whisky still.

A swarm of angry bees attacked the officers who persisted in their job — although somewhat hurriedly — but not until Deputy Sheriff H. B. Sands was badly stung.

The world has about a billion working people, says the International Labor Office.
